OWNERSHIP

On December 7, 2007, Predators Holdings LLC purchased the Nashville Predators and Powers Management (the company that operates the Sommet Center) and took over the day-to-day operation of the National Hockey League team and the Sommet Center.

Predators Holdings LLC includes local executives in finance, health care and private business. Members include: David Freeman, Herb Fritch, Christopher Cigarran, Thomas Cigarran, Joel and Holly Dobberpuhl, DeWitt Thompson V and John Thompson.

CHRISTOPHER C. CIGARRAN

Chris Cigarran is the senior vice president of human resources and organization development at Nashville's Healthways, Inc., the nation's leading and largest provider of comprehensive health and care support programs and services.

Prior to joining American Healthways, Cigarran spent several years as a consultant working with multiple organizations in the U.S. and Canada, including Patagonia, Citibank, Dofasco Steel and British Airways. In that role, Cigarran focused on teams in organizations, organizational culture, as well as organizational change and effectiveness.

Cigarran received his undergraduate degree from Bucknell University and his master's degree from Pepperdine University.

THOMAS G. CIGARRAN

Tom Cigarran is a co-founder, former CEO and current chairman of the Nashville-based Healthways, Inc., the nation's leading and largest provider of comprehensive health and care support programs and services. He also serves as chairman of AmSurg Corp., a single-specialty, practice-based ambulatory surgery center company.

Cigarran serves as chairman of the Alignment Nashville Operating Board, the Haiti Mission Education Committee and the advisory board of the Vanderbilt Owen School Healthcare MBA program. He also serves as a member of the boards of the Vanderbilt University Medical Center, the Nashville Alliance for Public Education, the Nashville Health Care Council and Harpeth Hall School.

Cigarran is a graduate of Villanova University with a Master's degree from the New York University Graduate School of Business.

JOEL AND HOLLY DOBBERPUHL

Joel Dobberpuhl is the CEO and portfolio manager of Jetstream Capital, a global hedge fund he founded in 2003. Prior to founding Jetstream Capital, Dobberpuhl was a senior portfolio manager for AIM investments.

Dobberpuhl received his degree from Southern Methodist University in 1988 alongside Holly (Stone) Dobberpuhl. Together, the Dobberpuhls are active in several charities based in the Nashville Area and have both served on the boards of Mercy Children's Clinic and Rocketown Ministries. Mrs. Dobberpuhl, a passionate Predators fan, also serves on the board of Saddle Up!, a therapeutic riding facility in Franklin, Tenn.

Joel, Holly, son Samuel and daughter Lily reside in Nashville.

DAVID S. FREEMAN

David S. Freeman founded 36 Venture Capital in 2007 and serves as the company's CEO.

He was the founder and CEO of Commodore Medical Sevices, formed in 1991, which grew to be the second-largest company in the medical waste industry at the time of its sale in 2007. He also practiced mergers and acquisition law for over 10 years in Dallas and Nashville.

Freeman received his undergraduate degree at the University of Tennessee and a Juris Doctor degree from the Vanderbilt University School of Law. Born and raised in Knoxville, Tenn., David and the Freeman family resides in Nashville.

OWNERSHIP

HERBERT A. FRITCH

Herbert A. Fritch has served as the chairman, president and chief executive officer of HealthSpring, Inc., and its predecessor, NewQuest, LLC, since it began operation in 2000. He is also the president of Renaissance Physician Organization, a large group of independent physician associations that are contracted providers to HealthSpring's Texas health maintenance organization, or HMO, subsidiary.

Beginning his career in 1973 as an actuary, Fritch has over 30 years of experience in the managed healthcare business.

A graduate of Carleton College, Fritch and his wife Barbara reside in Nashville. They are members of United Way's Tocqueville Society and Barbara serves on the board of the Nashville Zoo and Senior Citizens Inc. organizations.

DEWITT C. THOMPSON V

DeWitt (De) C. Thompson V currently serves as the president of Thompson Machinery, the Caterpillar dealer for Middle and West Tennessee and North Mississippi.

Thompson founded PureWorks, Inc. in 1999 and continues to serve as the company's chairman of the board. He also serves as chairman of the Nashville City Paper.

A graduate of Vanderbilt University, Thompson, his wife Jamee, son DeWitt VI and daughters Helen and Grace reside in Nashville.

JOHN P.G. THOMPSON

John P.G. Thompson has served as the marketing director of Thompson Machinery since January 2006. He also owns and manages Thompson Properties, LLC, a company that purchases, manages and sells single-family rental real estate property.

Prior to working for Thompson Machinery, he served as an asset manager for Covenant Capital Group, LLC.

A graduate of Vanderbilt University, Thompson is active in the Nashville community. He serves as a volunteer for preschool children with special needs, is a fundraising founder for the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation and a member of the Young Alumni Board of Nashville's Montgomery Bell Academy.

MANAGEMENT

ED LANG PRESIDENT OF BUSINESS OPERATIONS

The Nashville Predators introduced Ed Lang as the organization's President of Business Operations on December 11, 2007. Lang, who has been with the franchise since its inception, began as the organization's Vice President/CFO and was named Executive Vice President of Finance and Administration/CFO in 2005.

Lang oversees all aspects of the Predators operations outside of hockey, including Sommet Center operations. He is responsible for the franchise's business operations, which include ticket operations, sales, sponsorship sales, broadcasting, marketing, communications and development, administration and finances.

In his prior role, Lang was responsible for all financial, human resources, information technology, legal and administrative components of the organization. He also oversaw the team's communications and development operations, and Powers Management, the company that operates the Sommet Center.

The Cincinnati native is an alternate governor for the club and is charged with overseeing the franchise's overall operation, including the development of long-term plans and goals. Lang was instrumental in assisting former owner Craig Leipold in securing the expansion franchise that became the Nashville Predators in 1997. As one of the club's first employees, Lang also played important roles in creating the organization's structure and establishing it business operations.

For 12 years prior to joining the Predators, Lang worked for S.C. Johnson and Son in Racine, Wis. He served in a variety of business and financial capacities, including venture manager for the office of the chairman; financial support manager, North America professional markets; and financial project manager, corporate financial analysis.

In March of 2006, Lang was elected to the board of directors for Johnson Outdoors, a leading global outdoor recreation company. The company designs, manufactures and markets a portfolio of winning, consumer-preferred brands across four categories: watercraft, marine electronics, diving and outdoor equipment.

Since moving to Nashville in 1997, Lang has been very active in the Middle Tennessee community. He was elected Chairman of Nashville's Adventure Science Center in June 2008, and is a board member for the Nashville Convention and Visitors Bureau. He also serves as the vice president for the Nashville Predators Foundation and is a board member of the Nashville Downtown Partnership.

A 1985 Indiana University graduate with a B.S. in finance, Lang received his MBA from Marquette University in 1992. He resides in Brentwood, Tenn., with wife, Rita, and sons, Eddie and Andrew.

MARK FLOYD EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

Mark Floyd was named the Executive Vice President of Finance and Administration and Chief Financial Officer with the Nashville Predators in December of 2007. Mark also serves as the CFO for Diamond Jaxx Baseball Club, which owns the West Tennessee Diamond Jaxx, a Southern League AA affiliate of baseball's Seattle Mariners.

Mark's overall responsibilities with the Predators include finance, human resources and information technologies. His primary responsibilities include budgeting, forecasting, club borrowings and interaction with lenders, as well as working with Metro Nashville on the lease and management agreement relating to the Sommet Center.

Prior to joining the Predators, Mark was most recently the chief operating and financial officer of 36 Venture Capital, LLC ("36VC"). 36VC was an entity formed and led by Predators Governor David Freeman. Mark worked with Freeman and the local investor group that was put together in order to acquire the Predators from Craig Leipold in December 2007. Just prior to joining 36VC, Mark was the chief financial officer of the Nashville Area Chamber of Commerce for two years.

By joining the Predators, Mark has come full circle. He previously worked for Gaylord Entertainment Company. During Mark's 17 years with Gaylord, he primarily worked in the broadcasting and media group of Gaylord, serving as CFO of this group. While in that capacity, Mark had the pleasure of working on the Gaylord-led project to help bring a professional sports team to Nashville to be the primary tenant of the Nashville Arena, eventually handing off the project to Leipold and current Predators President of Business Operations Ed Lang.

Other positions that Mark held during his tenure at Gaylord include VP, Attractions, in which he had operational responsibility for Gaylord Springs Golf Course, the General Jackson Showboat, the Wildhorse Saloon, among others, as well as a period during which Mark was responsible for Gaylord's three radio stations and Gaylord's controlling interest in the Oklahoma Redhawks, a AAA affiliate of baseball's Texas Rangers.

Mark is a CPA and is originally from Oklahoma. He graduated Summa Cum Laude from East Central Oklahoma University in 1984 with a degree in Accounting. Mark and his wife, Devin, reside in Brentwood with their two teenage children, Drew and Hayley.

MANAGEMENT

DAVID POILE PRESIDENT OF HOCKEY OPERATIONS/GENERAL MANAGER

Nashville Predators General Manager David Poile has been a top voice in the National Hockey League for 26 years (15 with Washington, 11 with Nashville), second only in consecutive active seasons as a GM to the New York Rangers' Glen Sather (29 years). His overall tenure as a general manager ranks as the seventh longest in NHL history.

As the architect of a club built on speed and skill, Poile saw his aggressive team-building plan (implemented from the franchise's inception) continue to bear fruit in 2007-08. The Predators relied heavily on young and talented draft picks such as David Legwand, Martin Erat, Dan Hamhuis, Ryan Suter, Jordin Tootoo and Shea Weber. Poile also brought in veteran forwards Martin Gelinas, Greg de Vries and Radek Bonk prior to the start of the 2007-08 campaign.

By reaching the 2008 Stanley Cup Playoffs, the Nashville Predators became one of just seven franchises (along with Calgary, Dallas, Detroit, New Jersey, Ottawa and San Jose) to reach the postseason in each of the past four seasons. Nashville has recorded 398 points over the last four campaigns (91 in 2003-04, 106 in 2005-06, 110 in 2006-07 and 91 in 2007-08) for an average of 99.5 points per season.

The Predators have been one of the top teams in the NHL over the past few seasons. Their 141 wins ranks sixth best in the league, while 83 home victories since the start of 2005-06 puts them second behind only Detroit in that category. The club soared to its highest level yet in 2006-07, finishing the season with the second-most points in the Western Conference and tied for the third-most points in the entire National Hockey League. The Predators established franchise records in points (110), wins (51), road wins (23) and goals (272) and have now won 100 games total in their last two seasons.

Poile was recognized by The Sporting News as its Executive of the Year following the 2006-07 campaign, an honor he had received twice previously (1982-83 and 1983-84) and which is determined through a vote of his peers. Locally, Business TN magazine honored him as the magazine's "CEO of the Year" for 2006 based on his consistent and successful track record as the team's architect. During the 2007-08 campaign, Poile's team posted 51 wins and 110 points, both new highs in his career.

The aggressive team-building plan implemented by Poile from the franchise's inception has transformed the organization into one of the NHL's most promising clubs. Crucial to the plan's success is the ability to make the right selections and develop the young prospects. Poile has assembled a bright staff of personnel charged with those responsibilities, including assistant general manager Paul Fenton, and the coaching staff, led by Barry Trotz.

Poile has long been a proponent of a strong developmental system as a means to develop promising young players into productive NHL players. The Predators' primary affiliate, the American Hockey League's Milwaukee Admirals, captured the first Calder Cup Championship in franchise history in 2004 and revisited the Calder Cup Finals in 2006.

The Predators had two first-round selections in the 2008 Entry Draft for the first time in club history, selecting forward Colin Wilson and goaltender Chet Pickard. Poile, always looking ahead, has already stockpiled 13 picks for the 2009 Entry Draft.

With the introduction of a new CBA in 2005, free agency has become more of a factor in organizational development than ever before. Poile has added major assets to the club on the open market in offensive stars such as Jason Arnott and J.P. Dumont. He negotiated long-term deals with Dumont (four years), Legwand (six years) and Tootoo (two years) over the course of the 2007-08 season and then locked up young promising players like Erat (seven years), Dan Ellis (two years), Suter (four years) and Weber (three years) in the summer of 2008.

Poile's wisdom and experience is clearly valued throughout the hockey world. On June 6, 2008, USA Hockey named him the associate general manager for the U.S. team that will compete in the 2010 Olympic Winter Games in Vancouver. He was also selected as one of four NHL general managers to sit on the first NHL competition committee in 2005. The steering body formulates and recommends rule changes for approval by the NHL Board of Governors. In this role, he helped usher in the new era of NHL hockey – featuring on-ice innovations such as the regular-season shootout and the elimination of the red line – while at the same time drawing upon the wealth of experience accumulated through his many years in the game.

In 2001, Poile was a recipient of the Lester Patrick Award in recognition of contributions to hockey in the United States. David has devoted his professional career to hockey and the NHL, particularly in non-traditional markets. His late father, Bud Poile, also a recipient of the Lester Patrick Award (1989) and a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame (1990), served as general manager of two expansion franchises – first in Philadelphia (1967) and then in Vancouver (1970). David began his professional career as an administrative assistant with the Atlanta Flames expansion franchise in 1972 and spent 10 years with the organization before being named general manager of the Washington Capitals in 1982.

With Washington, Poile took the reins of a team that had never made the Stanley Cup playoffs. Over his 15 years there, the Capitals advanced to the post-season 14 times. The 1997-98 Capitals, largely comprised of players Poile acquired, advanced to the Stanley Cup Finals. During his 15-year tenure, the Caps compiled a record of 595-454-124 (.559), ranking among the NHL's top five teams during that span.

Poile was instrumental in the league's adoption of the instant replay rule in 1991. He was awarded Inside Hockey's Man of the Year award for his leadership on the issue. Poile also served as general manager of the 1998 and 1999 U.S. national team for the International Ice Hockey Federation World Championships.

A graduate of Northeastern University in Boston, Poile was hockey team captain, leading scorer and most valuable player for two years, earning a place in the University's Hall of Fame.

Poile also serves as an alternate governor for the team and holds a seat within the franchise's Office of the President. He and his wife, Elizabeth, reside in Nashville. The Poiles have two children – daughter Lauren and son Brian.

MANAGEMENT

PAUL FENTON ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Paul Fenton is now in his 11th season with the Predators and his third as assistant general manager. After serving as the director of player personnel for the Predators' first eight seasons, Fenton was promoted to assistant general manager on June 5, 2006.

Fenton oversees the Predators' amateur player development, manages the team's professional and amateur scouting staff and advises General Manager David Poile on all player trades and signings. He has been in charge of all player acquisitions since joining the Predators and has managed the club's Entry Draft efforts since 2003. Fenton also serves as general manager of the Predators' primary developmental affiliate, the Milwaukee Admirals of the American Hockey League.

Fenton joined the Predators after spending five seasons in the Anaheim Ducks' hockey operations department. He served as a scout during his first three seasons with the Ducks and as the chief professional scout the last two years. A number of players drafted during Fenton's run with the Ducks – such as Paul Kariya, Steve Rucchin, Ruslan Salei and Mike LeClerc – led Anaheim to the 2003 Stanley Cup Finals. The Springfield, Mass., native also helped facilitate one of the Anaheim franchise's largest trades, the February 1996 acquisition of Teemu Selanne.

Fenton played eight seasons in the NHL before joining the scouting ranks. He amassed 100 goals and 83 assists in 411 NHL contests while playing for seven different NHL teams, including San Jose during the Sharks' inaugural season (1991-92). In 1989-90, the former Boston University Terrier scored an NHL career-high 32 goals for the Winnipeg Jets, and his impressive playing resume also includes three selections to AHL and IHL All-Star teams.

Paul and his wife, Nona, reside in Longmeadow, Mass. They have two sons, P.J. and Owen. P.J. was the San Jose Sharks' sixth selection, 162nd overall (fifth round), in the 2005 NHL Entry Draft.

MICHAEL SANTOS DIRECTOR OF HOCKEY OPERATIONS

Michael Santos enters his third season as director of hockey operations in Nashville with 20 years of experience in the hockey industry. His responsibilities include negotiating player contracts, salary arbitration preparation and research and negotiating and overseeing minor league affiliation agreements with the Milwaukee Admirals and Cincinnati Cyclones. He is also involved with fiscal and strategic planning, evaluating pro players and managing the club's payroll, salary cap and compliance with the CBA as well as the day-to-day business operations of the hockey department.

Santos began his career with the NHL's New York office in 1988 before working for the AHL's New Haven Nighthawks from 1989-91. He returned to the NHL and spent six seasons as the league's Manager of Special Events establishing both the SuperSkills and Heroes of Hockey programs in addition to overseeing arena operations for the All-Star Weekend, Entry Draft and Stanley Cup Finals.

Santos went to work for the New York Islanders in 1997 and became Assistant General Manager and Director of Hockey Operations before leaving and becoming Director of Hockey Operations and Corporate Counsel for the Florida Panthers in 2002. He was named Commissioner and President of the North American Hockey League in 2003 and led the Junior "A" league through three seasons of unprecedented growth before arriving in Nashville.

Born in Boston and a native of Lowell, Mass., Santos is a 1986 graduate of Boston College. He received his Master's Degree from the United States Sports Academy in 1989, earned his Juris Doctorate from St. John's University School of Law in 1998, has been a member of the New York state bar since 1999 and serves on USA Hockey's junior and legal councils.

SCOUTING STAFF

JEFF KEALTY CHIEF AMATEUR SCOUT

Kealty, who has been a member of the Predators' scouting staff since the 2001-02 season, was named chief amateur scout on July 25, 2007. The Boston native manages the club's amateur scouting operation in addition to scouting the CHL, NCAA and other junior leagues in North America and Europe. Reporting to Assistant General Manager Paul Fenton, Kealty also spearheads the team's annual efforts at the NHL Entry Draft.

A former first-round pick (22nd overall) of the Quebec Nordiques in 1994, Kealty signed as a free agent with Nashville in 1998 following a four-year college career at Boston University. The former defenseman played one pro season for the Milwaukee Admirals (International Hockey League) before his playing career was cut short due to injury.

Kealty and his wife Lynn reside in Chestnut Hill, Mass.

MANAGEMENT

GERRY HELPER SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF COMMUNICATIONS & DEVELOPMENT

Gerry Helper joined the Predators in October, 1997, and he oversees the club's media and public relations efforts, publications, Web site, amateur hockey efforts and community relations initiatives. He serves as president of the Nashville Predators Foundation, which has awarded $2 million in grants to local charitable organizations. He also serves on the NHL's Communications Advisory Board and was the organization's point person with the NHL for the 2003 NHL Entry Draft in Nashville, which drew over 13,000 people to the Sommet Center.

In his first stint with an expansion franchise, Helper spent nearly seven years (1991-97) with the Tampa Bay Lightning as the team's vice president of communications. He assisted with the development of Tampa Bay's successful 1999 NHL All-Star Weekend bid. He also spent time as the NHL's director of information (1987-89) and director of public relations (1989-91) after beginning his sports career with the NHL's Buffalo Sabres (1979-86).

Helper was a member of USA Hockey's marketing council from 1994-99 and is currently on the board of directors for the YMCA, and the Nashville Sports Council. He is a 1979 graduate of St. Bonaventure University with a BA in mass communications and a 2000 graduate of Leadership Music.

Helper resides in Franklin, Tenn., with his wife, Kim, and daughters, Renee and Abigail.

CHRIS PARKER SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, CORPORATE DEVELOPMENT

Chris Parker was named Senior Vice President, Corporate Development for the Predators and Sommet Center on March 28, 2008. Prior to joining the Predators, he served as the Vice President of Business Development with Palace Sports & Entertainment in Detroit.

In his role with the Predators, Parker directs all aspects of the club's business and broadcast partnerships, including sales and service both locally and nationally. He also oversees the team's Corporate Partnerships and Premium Seats staff, focusing on securing new clients and managing current relationships.

While with Palace Sports and Entertainment, the ownership umbrella which includes the Pistons (NBA), the Shock (WNBA), the Palace at Auburn Hills and several concert venues, Parker managed parts of the corporate marketing department and all new business initiatives.

Prior to his time with Palace Sports, Parker spent nearly 10 years with Silicon Valley Sports & Entertainment (SVSE) the parent company of the San Jose Sharks, HP Pavilion Management and the SAP Open tennis tournament, beginning in advertising sales before shifting to the sponsorship department. Parker spent his last five years in San Jose as the Director, Corporate Partnerships where he oversaw all aspects of the organizations corporate sales and service initiatives.

During his tenure with SVSE Parker was responsible for more than $100 million in gross sales, including the naming rights to HP Pavilion, the SAP Open (ATP) and the Comerica Bank Club. Additionally, his group was responsible for the corporate sales and representation of teams and properties in Major League Soccer, the National Lacrosse League, Senior PGA, Champ Car Auto Racing (now IRL) and an NCAA Bowl game.

A graduate of the University of Michigan, with a degree in Sports Management and Communications, Parker began his sports career with the International Hockey League league office in suburban Detroit.

Parker resides in Nashville and serves on several philanthropic boards and committees including the Alumni Advisory Board of the Division of Kinesiology at the University of Michigan, Vice Chairman of the Bernard P. "Pat" Maloy Endowed Scholarship at Michigan and the Board of Directors for Junior Achievement of Middle Tennessee.

COACHING STAFF

BARRY TROTZ HEAD COACH

Barry Trotz is the first and only head coach in Nashville Predators history. Over his 10 seasons and 11 years as the Predators' bench boss, Trotz's mission has evolved from fielding a competitive and hardworking expansion club to directing a fast, skilled and hungry group counted among the NHL's top contenders. His career points percentage as an NHL head coach passed the .500 mark in 2006-07, and based on the success of the club, Trotz earned fourth place in balloting (by the NHL Broadcasters' Association) for the 2007 Jack Adams Award, given each season to "the NHL coach adjudged to have contributed the most to his team's success." He also served as an assistant coach for the Western Conference All-Stars at the 2007 NHL All-Star Game, and was named the NHL's coach of the year by The Sporting News, an honor determined through a vote of his peers.

Trotz enters 2008-09 with the second-longest tenure among the NHL coaching fraternity, behind only Buffalo's Lindy Ruff. He also ranks 10th in NHL history among games coached with the same team and 13th among wins with the same club.

By reaching the 2008 Stanley Cup Playoffs, the Nashville Predators became one of just seven franchises (along with Calgary, Dallas, Detroit, New Jersey, Ottawa and San Jose) to reach the postseason in each of the past four seasons. Nashville has recorded 398 points over the last four campaigns (91 in 2003-04, 106 in 2005-06, 110 in 2006-07 and 91 in 2007-08) for an average of 99.5 points per season.

The Predators have also been one of the top teams in the NHL since the start of the 2005-06 season. Their 141 wins ranks sixth best in the league, while 83 home victories since the start of 2005-06 puts them second behind only Detroit in that category. The club soared to its highest level yet in 2006-07, finishing the season with the second-most points in the Western Conference and tied for the third-most points in the entire National Hockey League. The Predators established franchise records in points (110), wins (51), road wins (23) and goals (272) and have now won 100 games total in their last two seasons.

The 46-year-old Winnipeg native reached his goal of becoming an NHL head coach when he was named to his current position on Aug. 6, 1997. After a year aggressively scouting talent in North America and Europe, Trotz and his staff made the most of their opportunity by leading the inaugural edition (1998-99) of the Predators to a 28-47-7 record. Starting with a 3-2 victory over the Carolina Hurricanes on Oct. 13, 1998, the Predators' 28 wins were the third-most in expansion history.

On March 1, 2003, Trotz coached his 392nd game with the Nashville Predators, establishing a league record for most games coached by a team's original coach since the NHL's first expansion in 1967. He surpassed current Nashville broadcast analyst Terry Crisp's mark of 391 games coached as the Tampa Bay Lightning's first coach from 1992-1997.

Prior to joining the Predators, Trotz spent five seasons (1992-97) as the head coach of the Washington Capitals' primary developmental affiliate in the American Hockey League. He was named head coach of the Baltimore Skipjacks in 1992 after one season as an assistant coach. Following the franchise's relocation to Portland, Maine in 1993, he led the Portland Pirates to two Calder Cup Finals appearances over the next four seasons. In 1994-95, Trotz coached Portland to a Calder Cup Championship and a league-best 43-27-10 record and captured AHL Coach of the Year honors. In 2006, he was honored with election to the Pirates' Hall of Fame.

Trotz began his coaching career in 1984 as an assistant with the University of Manitoba. He then served two seasons (1985-87) as the head coach and general manager of the Dauphin Kings junior hockey club before returning to the University of Manitoba as the head coach in 1987. In Jan. 2001, Trotz was inducted into the University's Hall of Fame.

During the 1987 campaign, Trotz also served as a scout for the Spokane Chiefs (WHL) and a part-time scout for the Capitals. In 1988, he joined Washington as a full-time western scout, and the next season he became the Caps' chief western scout.

Before coaching, Trotz played junior hockey for Regina (WHL) from 1979-83, capturing a WHL championship in 1979-80. The defenseman registered 102 points (19g-83a) and 490 penalty minutes in 204 games.

In addition to his NHL duties, Trotz has answered the call for Canada's national team. He served as an assistant coach for Team Canada at the 2002 and 2003 IIHF World Championships, winning a gold medal in 2003.

The popular head coach and his family are active in a variety of service and charitable initiatives in the Middle Tennessee community. This commitment was recognized when Trotz was honored with the Community Spirit Award (in recognition for community service) at the 2005 O'Charley's Dinner of Champions, presented by the Nashville Sports Council. For the past several seasons, the Trotz's have donated $500 to My Friend's House (a United Way agency) for each Nashville victory. He is an active board member for the Williamson County YMCA and the United Way, and in 2004-05, Trotz coached Nashville high school student-athletes.

Barry and his wife, Kim, reside in Brentwood along with their four children: Shalan, Tyson, Tiana and Nolan.

COACHING STAFF

BRENT PETERSON ASSOCIATE COACH

Brent Peterson enters his 11th season as a member of the Predators' coaching staff. He was originally appointed to the position of assistant coach on June 19, 1998 and was promoted to associate coach on June 19, 2003. Peterson has helped guide the team to the Stanley Cup Playoffs in each of its last four seasons.

Peterson joined the Predators after serving as head coach of the Portland Winter Hawks (WHL) for seven seasons, posting a 201-138-20 mark. During the 1997-98 season, the Winter Hawks were a league-best 53-14-5 and captured the WHL Championship and the Canadian Hockey League's Memorial Cup. He was originally appointed co-coach in 1991-92 and was named head coach for the 1993-94 season. He recorded 40-or-more victories on four occasions and helped develop NHL first-round picks Adam Deadmarsh (1993), Jason Wiemer (1994), Brenden Morrow (1997) and Marian Hossa (1997).

Prior to joining Portland, the Calgary, Alta. native spent two seasons (1989-1991) as an assistant coach with the Hartford Whalers (NHL) following his retirement as a player. The former Detroit first-round pick (1978) played 11 NHL seasons from 1978-1989 with Detroit, Buffalo, Vancouver and Hartford. He appeared in 620 NHL games, collecting 213 points (72g-141a) and 484 penalty minutes. Peterson was known as one of the NHL's top defensive forwards and penalty killers.

Peterson teaches area hockey coaches through the Predators' Coaches Clinic series during each season. He is also active in many of the Predators' community-relations initiatives and served as the head coach for Middle Tennessee State University's club team in 2004-05.

Brent and his wife, Tami, reside in Franklin, Tenn. They have three children: Ryan, Brad and Kristin.

PETER HORACHEK ASSISTANT COACH

Peter Horachek was named assistant coach of the Predators on June 19, 2003. In his first four seasons in the NHL, he has helped guide the Predators to consecutive Stanley Cup Playoff berths.

In 2002-03, Horachek served as head coach of Nashville's primary developmental affiliate, the Milwaukee Admirals of the American Hockey League. He guided the Admirals to a 32-27-14-7 record and their first playoff series victory since 1998.

Prior to becoming head coach of the Admirals, Horachek, a former head coach/director of hockey operations for the East Coast Hockey League's Nashville Knights, won championships as a coach and a player. In 2000-01, Horachek coached the Orlando Solar Bears to the IHL championship. The Solar Bears went 12-4 in the Turner Cup Playoffs and Horachek was named the 2001 IHL Coach of the Year.

The Stoney Creek, Ont., native took over the coaching duties for Orlando in 1999 after serving as an assistant the previous four seasons. After the Orlando franchise ceased operations following the 2000-01 season, Horachek coached the Trenton Titans of the ECHL to a Northern Conference Championship (46-16-10, .708) in 2001-02.

Horachek began his coaching career in the IHL as an assistant coach with Saginaw in 1987-88. He spent one year as a player/assistant coach with Flint, and another as a player/head coach in Norway. Horachek was named head coach/director of hockey operations for the Nashville Knights (ECHL) in 1990.

As a player, Horachek held the title of team captain in four of his five seasons with the Saginaw/Flint Generals and won a Turner Cup Championship in 1984. In 545 career professional games, he tallied 188 goals and 238 assists (188g-238a-426pts).

Horachek and his wife, Stacy, reside in Franklin, Tenn. His son, Cullen, is 17 years old.

COACHING STAFF

ROBERT BOUCHARD VIDEO COACH

Robert Bouchard is in his 11th season with the Predators and his ninth as the team's video coach. He is responsible for video analysis of all pre-scout and Predators game film, contributing to the formulation of scouting reports on the opposition and the production of all instructional/teaching tapes for players and prospects throughout the organization. He also provides on-ice support during conditioning, rookie and training camps as well as during the season.

Bouchard worked as the manager of team services during the club's inaugural season, and his contributions to the team's video work prompted his transition to video coordinator for the 1999-00 season. He was subsequently promoted to his current position during the summer of 2000.

Before joining the Predators, Bouchard worked for 12 years in a variety of hockey operations roles for the National Hockey League in Montreal and Toronto. In his last capacity with the NHL, the Pierrefonds, Quebec native managed more than 500 off-ice officials and video goal judges from the NHL office in Toronto as the officiating coordinator.

During the off-season, he serves as an on-ice instructor at several hockey schools and clinics throughout North America. He is the head instructor at the annual Predators Hockey School, responsible for the planning and integration of all tactical facets of the on-ice program. He was also the head coach of the Father Ryan High School hockey team in Nashville in 2006-07.

Robert, his wife, Janie, and children, Ryan and Meghan, reside in Hermitage, Tenn.

DAVID GOOD STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

David Good enters his fifth season as the strength and conditioning coach of the Nashville Predators. He joined the Predators in July of 2004 and is responsible for preparing and supervising workout programs for all players in the Predators system. Good also runs the club's prospect career development program and the off-ice aspects of the Predators Hockey School in the off-season.

Prior to joining the Predators, Good served as the director of speed-strength and conditioning for West Coast Sports Performance and Center for Athlete Medicine in Manhattan Beach, Calif., and also served as a consultant for the Long Beach Ice Dogs (ECHL). The Colorado native served as the assistant speed-strength and conditioning coach for the Los Angeles Kings from 1999-2003 and held the same title from 1997-99 with the Ice Dogs (IHL). He also served as strength and conditioning coordinator at Loyola Marymount University in Los Angeles from 1998-99.

Before moving to California, Good served as the student assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Colorado for two years. He received his bachelor of arts degree in kinesiology from the University of Colorado at Boulder along with certifications in strength and conditioning, sports conditioning, and Olympic weightlifting.

MITCH KORN GOALTENDING COACH

Mitch Korn is in his 11th season as the goaltending coach for the Nashville Predators and in his 18th season in the NHL. He works with all netminders in the Nashville system, including those playing in Milwaukee (AHL), amateur leagues and Europe. Last season, he helped current Nashville netminder Dan Ellis develop into a No. 1 goalie after playing in just one NHL game prior to the 2007-08 season. Ellis led the NHL in save percentage (.924) and tied for third in the NHL and established a single-season franchise record in shutouts (6). Korn also assisted in the development of former Nashville goaltenders Chris Mason and Tomas Vokoun. Mason ranked second in the NHL in save percentage (.925) in 2006-07 while Vokoun ranked fifth in the NHL in save percentage (.920) and tied for sixth in shutouts (5) in his last season with Nashville in 2006-07.

Prior to joining the Predators on July 23, 1998, Korn spent seven seasons coaching the netminders in the Buffalo Sabres organization, where he enjoyed great success while working with two-time Hart Trophy-winner Dominik Hasek. Under Korn's tutelage, Hasek captured four Vezina Trophies and led the NHL with the best save percentage five times. Korn also saw Buffalo's goaltending tandem (Hasek and Hall-of-Famer Grant Fuhr) capture the NHL's Jennings Trophy (lowest team goals-against average) during the 1994-95 season. Besides Hasek and Fuhr, Korn also coached current NHL standouts Olaf Kolzig and Martin Biron.

The New York City native has been employed at Miami University's Goggin Ice Center in Oxford, Ohio for the past 28 years, where he has served in various capacities. He currently runs the university's seven-week summer hockey school, along with his own goaltending and defensemen schools around the country. Korn also contributes regularly to several hockey publications including USA Hockey Magazine and Goalies' World.

Korn began his college hockey career at Kent State University in the late 1970s and started his coaching career at KSU in 1979. He continued coaching the goaltenders at Miami University until joining the Sabres in 1991. Korn has more than 33 years of coaching experience and is now in his 18th season as an NHL goaltending coach.

Mitch's daughter, Ashley, is a junior at Miami University, and skates on the university's Varsity Synchronized Skating Team.

TRAINING STAFF

DAN REDMOND HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Dan Redmond is in his 11th season as the head athletic trainer of the Predators. Prior to joining the Predators in July 1998, Redmond spent five seasons as the athletic trainer of the Portland Pirates of the American Hockey League (where he worked with Barry Trotz, head coach of the Predators) and four seasons with the AHL's Baltimore Skipjacks. He also spent three years (1987-1989) in the Cleveland Indians organization as the athletic trainer for their developmental clubs. He served two stints as a graduate assistant with Radnor High School (Radnor, Pa.) and Temple University Sports Medicine Center.

Redmond is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association. He worked his 1,000th game in professional hockey as an athletic trainer on December 23, 2001 and is expected to work his 1,500th game during the 2008-09 season.

Redmond resides in Lebanon, Tenn., with his wife, Barbara, daughter, Danielle and son, Sean.

PETE ROGERS HEAD EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Pete Rogers is in his 11th season as head equipment manager of the Nashville Predators. He is responsible for the everyday equipment needs of all the players as well as coordinating transfer of equipment to and from road games. Rogers also works with the NHL to ensure compliance with programs concerning equipment tracking, jersey authentication and on-ice exposure.

Rogers was the head equipment manager for the Eastern Conference All-Stars at the 2008 NHL All-Star game in Dallas. He has served as the equipment manager for Team USA at the 2006 Winter Olympics and at the IIHF World Championships in 2005 and from 1998-2002.

Rogers also worked as Team USA's equipment manager at the 2004 World Cup of Hockey and the 2004 Deutschland Cup in Germany. The veteran worked his 1,000th game as an equipment manager in professional hockey on January 23, 2002.

Prior to joining the Predators in July 1998, the SUNY Brockport graduate spent seven seasons as the equipment manager and director of team travel for the Rochester Americans of the American Hockey League. Rogers spent nine seasons as an assistant equipment manager in Rochester before a one-year stint as head trainer with the Hampton Roads Admirals of the East Coast Hockey League in 1989-90.

Pete, his wife, Judy, and daughter, Alexandra, reside in Franklin, Tenn.

BROADCAST PARTNERS

FSN SOUTH

FSN South, the nation's largest regional sports network, enters its 11th season as the cable and satellite television home of the Nashville Predators, televising 55 regular-season games to more than 3.3 million viewers across Tennessee, Kentucky and the northern portions of Alabama and Mississippi.

FSN South will serve as the exclusive telecast provider of Predators games for the 2008-09 NHL season. Calling all the Predators action on FSN South will be team play-by-play announcer Pete Weber and color analyst Terry Crisp.

The regional sports network will also televise Predators LIVE, extensive post-game show featuring player interviews and coaches' press conferences following each game telecast. Predators' players and personnel will also be prominently featured on original FSN South programs.

FSN South, the nation's largest regional sports network, reaches more than 12 million cable and satellite homes in seven states in the Southeast – Tennessee, Georgia, Kentucky, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina and Alabama. FSN South delivers a vast array of live telecasts from the professional (i.e., Atlanta Braves, Atlanta Hawks, Atlanta Thrashers, Carolina Hurricanes, Memphis Grizzlies, Charlotte Bobcats) and collegiate (SEC, ACC) sports worlds. The nation's largest regional sports network combines the resources of the Fox Sports brand with top professional, collegiate and other live events and games, as well as original sports programming relevant to the Southeastern sports fan.

PREDATORS RADIO NETWORK

104.5 The Zone (WGFX 104.5-FM) returns for its fourth season as the flagship radio station of the Nashville Predators. This year's broadcast will feature an exclusive radio broadcast in an effort to better serve the listening audience. A new radio-specific play-by-play announcer will call the action for the club's 55 games that air on FSN South, and will join the longtime team of Pete Weber (play-by-play) and Terry Crisp (color analyst) for the other 27 contests.

Several regional affiliates complete the broadcast radio network of the Nashville Predators during the hockey season, as games are broadcast throughout the state of Tennessee, as well as parts of Kentucky and Alabama.

WGFX will carry all preseason, regular season and post-season Predators games that do not conflict with its previous broadcast commitments, while Nashville's 97.1 RQQ (WRQQ 97.1-FM) will broadcast the balance of the schedule. All regular-season and playoff games will include a post-game show, with those following home games originating from the Sommet Center's Suite Level Club.

WGFX afternoon personality Willy Daunic will be the primary host for radio broadcasts, providing game analysis, player interviews and profiles, NHL scores and highlights before, during and after the final horn. 104.5 The Zone will continue to be the home of hockey on Nashville's radio dial in 2008-09, airing player/coach shows, game-day updates, weekly reports and additional weekly programming.

104.5 The Zone features highly-rated morning (The Wake-Up Zone with Mark Howard, Frank Wycheck and Kevin Ingram, Monday-Friday, 6:00-10:00 a.m. CT) and afternoon-drive (The Sports Zone with George Plaster, Willy Daunic and Darren McFarland, Monday-Friday, 3:00-7:00 p.m.) shows, with both welcoming Predators players, coaches and other personnel on as guests on a regular basis. The Sports Zone Pre-Game Show (Monday-Friday, 2:00-3:00 p.m. CT), hosted by McFarland, dedicates an entire show to hockey each week. Additionally, the station hosts a Predators player's show live in downtown Nashville during the season.

BROADCASTERS

PETE WEBER PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

"Voice of the Predators" Pete Weber enters his 11th season as the team's play-by-play announcer in 2008-09. His insight into the team and the game of hockey is a regular feature in local sports talk radio and television, and he also consistently contributes to the Predators' Web site and team publications.

Pete is slated to be a "Western Conference Insider" on XM Satellite Radio's "NHL Home Ice" service (XM 204) once again in 2008-09. In addition to his duties with the team, Weber co-hosted "SportsNight" (a popular local sportstalk radio program) from July 2003 until August of 2005 and has filled in as a program host for ESPN Radio. For the past few summers, Pete has joined in on the Triple-A baseball Nashville Sounds' broadcasts and also produced and hosted weekly podcasts: "This Week in the Minor Leagues" and the syndicated "Southern Pro Football."

Weber spent two seasons (1995-97) as the radio play-by-play announcer for the Buffalo Sabres, three seasons (1978-81) as the color analyst for the Los Angeles Kings and also served as host of "Hockey Night with the Buffalo Sabres" from 1990-93. Along with his 22 seasons of NHL experience, Weber has served as a play-by-play voice in baseball (Buffalo Bisons, 1983-95), basketball (Seattle SuperSonics, 1981-82) and football (University of Buffalo, 1992). He called the hockey action for the University of Notre Dame (1974-76) and the University at Buffalo (1976-78) and was part of the Buffalo Bills' broadcast team during their four Super Bowl seasons (1990-93).

Weber was inducted into the Buffalo Baseball Hall of Fame in the summer of 1999. He was elected to the Board of Governors for the Mid-South Region of the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences and served as vice president from 2003-07.

The Galesburg, Ill., native is a graduate of the University of Notre Dame. Weber and his wife, Claudia, reside in Nashville.

TERRY CRISP COLOR COMMENTATOR

Entering his 11th season with the Predators, Terry Crisp provides the color commentary on the club's television and radio broadcasts and helps comprise one of the most well-known broadcast duos in the league. He regularly contributes insight to the Predators' Web site and local sports talk radio and worked as a studio analyst for Canada's TSN during the 2000, 2002 and 2003 World Championships.

Crisp served as a color analyst for FOX Sports during the 1998-99 season and during the 1998 and 1999 Stanley Cup Finals, and has served in a similar capacity for TSN in past years.

Crisp posted 201 points (67g-134a) in 536 games during his 11 seasons in the NHL as a player for the Boston Bruins, St. Louis Blues, New York Islanders and Philadelphia Flyers. He has won three Stanley Cup Championships, two as a player with the Flyers (1974 and 1975) and one as a coach with Calgary (1989), and he is one of only 14 people to have won the Cup as both player and head coach. The Parry Sound Ont., native has a unique perspective on expansion teams: he was a player with the inaugural editions of the St. Louis Blues in 1967 and the New York Islanders in 1972.

Crisp was the head coach of the Tampa Bay Lightning from the franchise's inception in 1992 through October, 1997, coaching 391 games. He held the record for most games coached by an expansion franchise's first coach until Nashville head coach Barry Trotz broke the mark in 2003. In the 2004 NHL Stanley Cup Finals, the Lightning defeated the Flames – the team he coached to the Cup in 1989. Crisp also served as the assistant coach of the silver medal-winning Canadian team at the 1992 Winter Olympic Games in Albertville, France.

Terry and his wife, Sheila, reside in Nashville. The Crisp's have three children – sons Tony and Jeff and daughter Caley.

POWERS MANAGEMENT

Powers Management | 501 Broadway | (615) 770-2000 | Fax: (615) 770-2010

The facility management company Powers Management was established in 1997, and it took over the day-to-day operation and management of Nashville's premier sports and entertainment facility, the Sommet Center, on July 1, 2000. Inheriting the building's original management contract from Leisure Management, Inc., Powers Management is retained by the Nashville Sports Authority and Metro Nashville.

Hugh Lombardi joined the Sommet Center in June 2002 and oversees the building's day-to-day operations and event bookings as Powers Management's senior vice president/general manager and chief operating officer. Lombardi and his staff are responsible for administration, box office, operations, engineering, finance, marketing, booking and maintenance.

Since its opening on December 18, 1996, more than 12 million fans have entered the doors to "Experience the Excellence" of the Sommet Center, home of world-class entertainment and sporting events. The Sommet Center hosts more than 150 events each year, ranging from Predators games to concerts, family shows and community events. Additionally, the state-of-the-art facility hosts a large number of conventions and business conferences. It has ranked in the top 30 in overall arena ticket sales while averaging more than 20 concerts per year each of the past three years. In 2007, the Sommet Center was nominated for the Pollstar Concert Industry Venue of the Year award.

A report issued in 2004 estimated that the Sommet Center had an economic impact of more than $618 million on downtown Nashville from 1997-2003, and Sommet Center events annually are responsible for over $100 million of economic impact. Four days of the NCAA men's basketball tournament means greater than $6 million of economic impact on the community, while a full season of Predators hockey brings approximately $80 million in impact.

The one million-square-foot facility, located in downtown Nashville (corner of Broadway and Fifth Avenue), has also spurred downtown growth in the last eight years, inspiring further development that includes the Country Music Hall of Fame, the Frist Museum of the Visual Arts and the Schermerhorn Symphony Center.

The Sommet Center serves a variety of "non-traditional" functions for Davidson County, the city of Nashville and local residents as well. The Sommet Center tower is home to the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame, an XM Radio studio, and the Nashville Convention and Visitors Bureau, which hosts more than 500,000 tourists annually. The Sommet Center features The Suite Level Club, a 260-seat fine-dining experience, which is open before and after games and hosts a number of banquets and receptions.

The arena also houses over 6,000 square feet of meeting room space and a 13,500-square-foot rehearsal hall that is available for rent and used by a number of touring acts. Metro's Registry of Deeds and the Metro North Police precinct are also located inside the Sommet Center.

PREDATORS FOUNDATION

Established in 1998, the Nashville Predators Foundation strives to meet the educational, social, health and cultural needs of our community by offering unique resources and financial support to local youth-oriented organizations. Through several fundraisers held throughout the year, the Predators Foundation has awarded more than $2 million to Nashville and Middle Tennessee-area charities and community service organizations since its creation.

GOLF TOURNAMENT

The Nashville Predators Foundation hosts its annual "First Tennessee Dr. Mac Memorial Golf Tournament" each September. In 2004, the tournament's name was changed in honor of the late Dr. James McPherson, who served as the Predators' dentist from 1998-2004. The 2008 tournament raised more than $40,000 for the Nashville Predators Foundation.

UNMASKED BALL

In past years, Hollywood, Hawaiian Luau, New Orleans Mardi Gras and Disco Ball have highlighted the Unmasked Ball, a black-tie affair featuring Predators players, coaching staff and management. Guests attending the ball have had the opportunity to have their photo taken with Predators players and the Stanley Cup throughout the evening. The Unmasked Ball features a live and silent auction and has raised more than $950,000 since its inception in 1998.

WINE FESTIVAL & TASTING

The Predators Foundation held their inaugural Wine Festival & Tasting in 2006. The 2008 event consisted of a wine tasting on the floor of the Sommet Center and featured samples from more than 120 wines, Budweiser beer and assorted spirits. Levy Restaurants also had culinary stations set up and served heavy hors d'oeuvres. The evening included Predators personnel, an extensive silent auction and photo opportunities with Predators mascot GNASH.

There was also a VIP Dinner & Tasting hosted by Michael Hendry of Hendry Vineyards in The Suite Level Club that included a five-course wine dinner featuring Hendry Wines.

JACK DILLER EDUCATION AWARD

Each year the Predators Foundation awards four high school seniors the Jack Diller Education Award in the amount of $2,500 each. All applicants must reside within Nashville/Middle Tennessee, excel in academics, athletics and volunteerism, and nominated by a teacher or coach. Applicants must include their transcript, an essay on why they are deserving of this award and two letters of recommendation. The four winning students are recognized during a Predators home game. Applications are available in September with a February 6, 2009 deadline. For more information, please contact the Nashville Predators Foundation at (615) 770-2321 or visit the Nashville Predators website at nashvillepredators.com/community.

Other events and activities that raise funds for the Nashville Predators Foundation include:

DEX SCORE & WIN PROGRAM

The Nashville Predators Foundation and DEX Imaging and Mailing teamed up to raise $30,900 through the DEX Score and Win Program during the 2007-08 regular season. Every time a Predator scored a goal or recorded a goaltending win in 2007-08, DEX made a donation to the Predators Foundation that was distributed to 10 Middle Tennessee charities. For every goal scored by a forward or a win by a goaltender, DEX contributed $100. The contribution was $150 for goals scored by a defenseman and there was a $200 bonus for hat tricks and shutouts.

The 2007-08 campaign marked the third season of the DEX Score and Win Program. The program was launched midway through the 2005-06 season and brought in $18,750 that year. The program has now combined for more than $86,000 over the past three seasons.

DEX Imaging and Mailing provides premier office systems and service support in the Southeast and is the Official Office Equipment Provider of the Predators.

GAME NIGHT/ON-LINE SILENT AUCTION

The Predators Foundation hosts a silent auction table at each Predators home game behind section 120 on the main concourse. Also at the auction table, at various games throughout the season, the Predators Foundation will be selling autographed pucks as part of a fundraiser called Holiday Mystery Puck. For a $20 donation to the Foundation, fans will have the opportunity to select a wrapped, themed puck autographed by a Predators player. Additionally, Predators Foundation online auctions are hosted on nhl.com.

BIRTHDAY AND SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT MEGATRON MESSAGES

For a donation to the Predators Foundation, fans have an opportunity to put birthday, anniversary and engagement announcements on the Megatron during Predators home games. In-game center-hung scoreboard rates are $50 for a birthday announcement and $100 for an engagement announcement (based on game availability). To schedule, please contact Community Relations at (615) 770-2331.

ZAMBONI RIDES/PRE-GAME VISIT TO THE PENALTY BOX

For a $100 donation to the Nashville Predators Foundation, Predators fans can ride the Zamboni or have the opportunity to sit in the visiting team's penalty box during the Nashville Predators' pre-game skate. To schedule, please contact Community Relations at (615) 770-2331.

DONATION REQUESTS

The Nashville Predators are committed to positively influencing the community far beyond the game. The team's community relations department assists non-profit charities and other businesses to raise money for their own causes. To request a non-monetary donation for your event, please visit nashvillepredators.com/donations.

NASHVILLE PREDATORS FOUNDATION GRANT RECIPIENTS

In 2007-08, the Nashville Predators Foundation distributed over 100 grants totaling more than $250,000 to Nashville and Middle Tennessee-based community service and charitable organizations.

GRANT APPLICATIONS

The Predators Foundation places priority on giving back to the local communities where its players, employees and fans live and work. Foundation grants range from $500 to a maximum of $10,000. Organizations must have a 501(c)3 status to apply. To request an application, please contact the Nashville Predators Foundation at (615) 770-2321 or visit the Nashville Predators website at nashvillepredators.com/community.

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

The Predators are committed to the underlying team mission to "work hard, play hard, and provide outrageous customer and community service." Every member of the Predators organization can be found giving back to the community throughout the season - from ownership, players, management, and staff.

This commitment to the community is seen through various initiatives. A few of the Predators' 2007-08 initiatives included Second Harvest Food Bank collections, the Marine Corps Toys for Tots Drive, Salvation Army Kettle Drive, monthly hospital visits, a Thanksgiving Turkey Giveaway, a Holiday Party for kids and the Teacher of the Month Program.

The Nashville Predators are also actively involved in a variety of programs providing incentives for elementary, middle and high school students.

PREDATORS FOUNDATION

STICK TO READING = SUCCEEDING

Stick to Reading = Succeeding is an incentive program that encourages young students to read. For the past two seasons the Predators have partnered with Lochinvar to create a reading incentive program in Wilson County. This program includes prizes for the students who attain certain reading levels, school assemblies with appearances by Predators players, mascot GNASH and Predators personnel, in addition to tickets and autographed memorabilia to encourage the students to excel in academics.

WAL-MART TEACHER OF THE MONTH

The Wal-Mart Teacher of the Month program recognizes teachers in the greater Nashville area for their accomplishments. The Predators select teachers based upon the principal's portrayal of how the teacher has impacted students, school faculty and others around them. The Predators target a different county in the area each month and applications are distributed by the Predators to the principals. The winning teacher each month receives a surprise visit from Predators mascot GNASH, a certificate, tickets to a Predators game and recognition on the Predators web site. For more information, please contact Community Relations at (615) 770-2331 or visit the Nashville Predators website at nashvillepredators.com/community.

PENCIL PARTNER PROGRAM

The Pencil Partner Program partners the Nashville Predators with Hume-Fogg High School and Lockeland Design Center Elementary School to provide unique opportunities to local youth. High school students have the opportunity to be a sportswriter for a day, where they watch a game from the pressbox, attend the post-game press conference with Head Coach Barry Trotz and write a follow-up game story. Other opportunities in the program include mascot GNASH welcoming the students to school on the first day after summer vacation, complimentary tickets, donated autographed memorabilia, participation in hockey clinics and the opportunity for students to volunteer at Predators' fundraising events.

PLAYERS' WIVES INITIATIVES: ARENA DRIVES

Throughout the year, the players' wives organize charitable drives to benefit the families of Nashville and Middle Tennessee. Fans are encouraged to bring donations during these games.

DRIVE DATES:

Saturday, 9/27 vs. Columbus	School supplies drive benefiting Bridges Academy
Saturday, 11/1 vs. Florida	Second Harvest Food Bank food drive
Monday, 11/17 vs. San Jose	Second Harvest Food Bank food drive
Thursday, 12/4 vs. Colorado	Toys for Tots toy drive
Saturday, 12/13 vs. Dallas	Toys for Tots toy drive
Saturday, 12/20 N.Y. Islanders	Salvation Army Kettle drive
Saturday, 1/10 vs. Chicago	New/gently-used sports equipment drive benefiting Sports 4 All Foundation
Saturday, 2/28 vs. Detroit	Book drive benefiting Book'em
Saturday, 3/28 vs. Los Angeles	Baby supplies drive benefiting Nurses for Newborns

WAL-MART FRIDAY FUNDAY

Throughout the season Predators players' wives, girlfriends and mascot GNASH participate in the Wal-Mart Friday FunDay program by visiting local elementary schools on a Friday to read books to the students and talk about the importance of education.

PLAYERS' CHARITABLE INVOLVEMENT

Nashville Predators players, management and mascot GNASH made more than 250 appearances in Middle Tennessee during the 2007-08 season. Over the years, players have donated game tickets and have visited several non-profit organizations throughout the Nashville community. Several organizations have benefited from the Predators' charitable ticket initiatives including:

ABLE Youth, Big Brother Big Sisters of Middle Tennessee, Book'em, Boys & Girls Clubs of Middle Tennessee, Bridges Academy, Camp Horizons, Make-A-Wish Foundation, Metropolitan Parks & Recreation, Monroe Harding, Nurses for Newborns, Progress, Inc., Rocketown, Ronald McDonald House, Saddle Up!, Special Olympics, Sports 4 All Foundation, Tennessee Baptist Children's Home, YMCA of Middle Tennessee, Youth Encouragement Services and Youth Villages.

COACH TROTZ AND MY FRIEND'S HOUSE

Head Coach Barry Trotz and his wife Kim have provided a $500 donation to My Friend's House for every Predators home win since the start of the 1999-2000 season. Together, they have donated more than $110,000.

YOUTH & AMATEUR HOCKEY

The Nashville Predators continue their efforts to enhance the awareness and opportunity of youth hockey in Middle Tennessee. The Predators have created partnerships with local youth hockey associations and assist with fundraising, hockey education and additional ice time to promote the growth of the sport at the grassroots level.

The Nashville Predators also assist area youth hockey organizations by providing coaches' clinics, players' clinics, ice time at the Sommet Center and funding for uniforms. Area youth players are also frequently featured during intermissions at Predators' home games. For more information on these programs, please contact the Predators Youth & Amateur Hockey Department at (615) 770-2372.

STREET PRIDE

The NHL's league-wide street youth hockey program, NHL Street, serves local community centers and schools by providing a free athletic and educational program.

The NHL and the Nashville Predators provide street hockey sticks, rubber pucks, no-bounce balls, nets and protective goalie equipment, including start-up hockey instruction for coaching and administration. The Predators also provide informative manuals for staff and participants, as well as follow-up with program centers and player/coach clinics.

There are currently 36 community centers that participate in the Street Pride program.

PREDATORS HOCKEY SCHOOL

The Predators host a hockey school each July at Centennial Sportsplex. The school is open to boys and girls ages 8-14. Youth attending the hockey school are challenged daily with more than two hours of ice time, as well as intensive dry-land conditioning, video analysis and "chalk talk" sessions. The hockey school emphasizes the basic fundamentals of hockey: stickhandling, power skating, shooting and passing.

Other features of the camp include daily lectures on nutrition, injury prevention, equipment maintenance and perspectives from Predators' scouting and coaching staff.

The Predators also host the Little Preds Hockey School, an evening camp, during the summer at Cool Springs Ice Center in Franklin. The school is offered to children ages 4-7.

TAKING HOCKEY TO THE STREETS

"Taking Hockey to the Streets" is a grassroots marketing initiative in which members of the Predators organization make unannounced visits to neighborhoods where kids routinely gather to play street hockey. The program gives young fans an exciting opportunity to interact with members of the Predators organization, players, coaches, mascot and/or broadcast team. The program is designed to promote and grow the sport of hockey from the grassroots level in Middle Tennessee.

PREDATORS CUP

The best high school teams in the state of Tennessee compete in the state high school hockey championship for "The Predators Cup." The Predators Cup represents the Tennessee State High School Championship trophy and it remains on permanent display in the Sommet Center. A replica version is awarded to the state winner.

The Nashville Predators established the Predators Cup during the 1999-00 season as part of the team's mission to increase the visibility of hockey on the amateur level in the state of Tennessee. The Predators Cup features an NHL experience, complete with a ceremonial face-off, a public address announcer, off-ice officials, scoreboard, music operators and locker room accommodations.

Predators Cup winners:
2000 - Memphis Metro Warriors
2001 - Centennial Cougars
2002 - Brentwood Bruins
2003 - Mt. Juliet Bears
2004 - Houston Mustangs
2005 - Collierville Dragons
2007 - Pope John Paul II Knights
2008 - Pope John Paul II Knights

COACHES CORNER

In an ongoing effort to foster and improve youth hockey opportunities in Middle Tennessee and the mid-South region, the Nashville Predators are pleased to offer support to youth hockey coaches at all levels. Through partnerships with flexxCOACH and USA Hockey, the Predators are able to present tools that any coach can use to improve his or her knowledge and, in turn, the team's on-ice performance. The Nashville Predators have teamed up with flexxCOACH to bring coaches and players on-ice drills from the pros through complimentary on-line weekly drills at nashvillepredators.com. USA Hockey, Inc., is the National Governing Body for the sport of hockey in the United States. As such, its mission is to promote the growth of hockey in America and provide the best possible experience for all participants by encouraging, developing, advancing and administering the sport. The Predators host USA Hockey Coach Clinics throughout the year featuring Predators coaching staff as guest speakers.

LOCAL HOCKEY RECOGNITION

The Nashville Predators recognize an ice or inline player and volunteer in the Nashville areas who demonstrate character skills that make youth hockey a better experience for all involved. During the season, the Youth Hockey Player of the Month and Youth Hockey Volunteer of the Month are recognized at a Predators home game. Local coaches, parents, team managers, friends and rink or league administrators nominate Middle Tennessee individuals for either award. Potential candidates are based on the following criteria as displayed at the rink, during practices, games and tournaments: sportsmanship, respect, positive attitude and behavior. In addition to individual recognition, the Predators also recognize teams that make up the Tennessee amateur and youth hockey scene. Tennessee Hockey Team Spotlight was created for ice, inline or street hockey teams that deserve to have their story told. Stories are featured at nashvillepredators.com

PREDATORS GET OUT AND LEARN! HOCKEY PROGRAM

The Predators G.O.A.L! program presented by Delta Dental of Tennessee introduces the game of hockey to potential future Predators, without the financial commitment typically associated with the sport. This free introductory program is designed for kids 9-and-under with no prior hockey experience. G.O.A.L! is offered in weekly sessions throughout the year at local rinks. The Predators provide all necessary equipment, ice time and instruction for kids to sample what it's like to play hockey, making the program ideal for any family. The Predators are dedicated to supporting the development of youth hockey at all levels and recognize the need for local skating facilities to be accessible for beginners to help grow the sport, beginning at younger ages. Since it's inception in the fall of 2005, more than 600 participants have graduated from G.O.A.L!.

ACE'S GOT SKILLS

Launched in September 2004 and supported by the Nashville Predators in addition to the National Hockey League and several NHL teams, Ace's Got Skills is modeled after the NHL's popular All-Star Super Skills Competition and gives boys and girls ages 9-12 the opportunity to come out and test their skill level in the following key ice hockey categories: fastest skater, hardest shot, accuracy shooting, breakaway shootout and best goalie. Local winners from these league-wide, top-shelf youth ice hockey skills competitions have the opportunity to compete at the Nationals against qualifiers from other NHL markets. Registration fees collected by the program benefit the Ace Bailey's Children's Foundation in memory of former Boston Bruin "Ace" Bailey who was killed in the Sept. 11, 2001 attacks.

HOT SHOTS

The Nashville Predators Hot Shots hockey clinic travels to schools within the Middle Tennessee area and aims to educate first to sixth grade physical education classes on the fundamentals of hockey. Each school year the Hot Shots program visits more than 25 schools and 5,000 students in Davidson, Montgomery, Rutherford, Sumner, Williamson and Wilson counties. Predators Youth & Amateur Hockey personnel provide instruction and necessary street hockey equipment for participation in Hot Shots. The clinic includes a brief introduction about the history of the Nashville Predators, an overview of the equipment Predators players use, and continues with interactive hockey skills that focus on stick handling and shooting. At the end of the program, students are given the opportunity to ask questions regarding hockey or the Nashville Predators.

PROTECT YOUR FANGS

Launched in fall 2007, the Nashville Predators and Delta Dental of Tennessee have teamed up for the "Protect Your Fangs" campaign, an initiative to encourage the use of mouth guards to prevent injury and maintain oral health. "Protect your Fangs" aims to educate 3,000-plus Tennessee youth ice and inline hockey players the importance of mouth guard use during sports activities, specifically hockey. Through this campaign, the Nashville Predators will provide "boil and bite" mouth guards and posters courtesy of Delta Dental of Tennessee to be distributed to all ice and inline youth hockey players ages 4-17 statewide as they take to the ice for the start of their hockey seasons.

AHL COACHING STAFF

LANE LAMBERT HEAD COACH

Lane Lambert enters his second season as head coach of the Admirals, after serving as the team's top assistant in 2006-07. Lambert, the 17th coach in Admirals history, guided a young Milwaukee squad to a 44-29-4-3 record and a spot in the 2008 Calder Cup Playoffs in his first season behind the bench.

In his first season at the helm, Lambert's focus on defense saw the Admirals give up the fourth-fewest goals in the league in addition to ranking among the AHL's best in penalty killing and shutouts. He also helped Milwaukee to a 6-1-1 record to start the season, its best start to a season in years.

Prior to joining the Admirals, the Melfort, Saskatchewan native served as an assistant coach for the Bridgeport Sound Tigers, the New York Islanders' AHL affiliate, in 2005-06 where he helped to lead the Sound Tigers to a 38-33-6-3 record and a Calder Cup playoff berth.

Prior to his position in Bridgeport, Lambert was the head coach of the Prince George Cougars of the Western Hockey League in 2004-05. In 2002-03 he was an assistant for the Moose Jaw Warriors (WHL) and helped the team to a 36-22-11-3 record and a second place finish in the East Division.

Lambert finished a distinguished 18-year playing career with the Houston Aeros in 2000-01. Originally, the Detroit Red Wings second selection, 25th overall (second round), in the 1983 NHL Entry Draft, Lambert finished his NHL career with 125 points (58g-67a) and 521 penalty minutes in 283 games with Detroit, the New York Rangers and Quebec from 1983-89. Lambert enjoyed his most successful NHL campaign with the Nordiques in 1987-88, recording career-highs in points (41) and assists (28) in 61 contests.

The 43-year old Lambert also gained significant playing experience in both the American and International Hockey Leagues. He posted 107 points (44g-63a) in 115 games during three seasons in the AHL with Adirondack, Halifax and New Haven and notched 131 points (69a-62a) in 302 contests during five seasons with Cleveland and Houston of the IHL.

Lambert won a pair of championships as a player. The first was an AHL Calder Cup title with Adirondack in 1986. He also helped the Houston Aeros claim the IHL's Turner Cup championship in 1999.

Lambert and his wife, Andrea, have two children, Taylor and Samantha.

BRAD LAUER ASSISTANT COACH

Brad Lauer is in his second season as the Admirals top assistant coach, having helped lead Milwaukee to its sixth consecutive Calder Cup playoff berth in 2007-08. The Humboldt, Saskatchewan, native's duties with the club include running the defense corps on the bench and pre-scouting opponents.

Lauer came to the Admirals after five successful seasons (2002-07) as an assistant coach for the Kootenay Ice of the Western Hockey League. During the 2006-07 season, Lauer helped the Ice to an impressive 49-17-0-3 record and 104 points which was good for second place in the WHL's Central Division. In his five seasons with the Ice, the team picked up more than 100 points twice and won 40 games on three occasions. The team's winning percentage during that span was a remarkable .638, while their 139 wins in those three seasons were the most in any three years combined in team history.

The New York Islanders second-round pick in the 1985 draft (34th overall), Lauer completed a 16-year playing career after the 2001-02 season. In that time he posted 111 points on 44 goals and 67 assists in 323 career NHL games with the Islanders, Chicago Blackhawks, Ottawa Senators and Pittsburgh Penguins. His most successful NHL campaign came during the 1987-88 season when he notched 35 points (17g-18a) in 69 games with the Isles. He was also a member of the 1991-92 Blackhawks team that made it to the Stanley Cup Finals.

Lauer also established himself as a scoring threat during 13 seasons in the AHL and the International Hockey League. Playing for the Indianapolis Ice, Las Vegas Thunder, Cleveland Lumberjacks and Utah Grizzlies of the IHL, he picked up 273 goals and 275 assists for 548 career points. He also skated for the Springfield Indians and Capital-District Islanders in the American League where he registered 28 points (10g-18a) in 26 games.

In 1992-93, he topped all IHL players with 50 goals and finished fifth in the league in scoring with 91 points despite playing in just 62 games for Indianapolis. Lauer played a pair of seasons with Lane Lambert in Cleveland, including the 1996-97 campaign that saw the Lumberjacks make it to the Eastern Conference Finals, the farthest they ever advanced, before falling to eventual champion Detroit.

The 41-year old Lauer spent 1998-2001 with the Grizzlies where he notched 72 goals and 75 assists in 222 games, including 31 tallies during the 1998-99 season. He finished his playing career with the Sheffield Steelers of the British Super League in 2001-02.

ACQUIRED

Feb. 16, 2004 - Acquired by Nashville from Chicago for a second-round selection in the 2004 Entry Draft (Ryan Garlock) and a second-round selection in the 2005 Entry Draft (Michael Blunden).

CAREER NOTES: Has 158 points (62g-96a) in 150 games as a Predator... Has scored 20 goals in eight straight seasons he has played in and has hit the 60 point-mark in seven straight campaigns in which he has seen action.

2007-08: Missed the entire season due to a back injury.

2006-07: Finished fourth on the team in scoring (22g-38a-60pts) despite playing in just 57 games... Tied for third on the team in game-winning goals (4) and finished 10th in the NHL in shooting percentage (18.0%)... Led the team in shorthanded goals (3) and ranked fourth on the team in power-play points (6g-17a-23pts)... Posted 17 multi-point games, including six three-point contests... Scored the game-winning goal (3g-2a-5pts) in three straight games from Jan. 5-9... Skated in his 700th NHL game on Dec. 30 vs. Boston... Scored his sixth career hat trick in a 6-0 win vs. Ottawa on Dec. 14. It was the franchise's second natural hat trick and set a team record for the fastest three goals by an individual (5:56)... Posted his 100th point as a Predator on Oct. 5 vs. Chicago... Missed 24 games, including the final 19 games of the season, due to injury.

2005-06: Tied for the team lead with a franchise-record 31 goals and ranked second on the club in scoring (31g-37a-68pts)... Tied for third on the club in assists (37) and tied for second in game-winning goals (5)... Finished second on the club with a career-high 13 power-play goals and third on the team with 34 power-play points (13g-21a)... Tied for the team lead in game-deciding shootout goals with two... Established a career-high 10-game point streak (5g-13a-18pts) from Mar. 7-25... Posted four straight multi-point games (2g-7a-9pts) from March 7-14... Scored two goals at Vancouver on March 9. His first tally set a new franchise single-season record for goals, breaking Cliff Ronning's mark of 26 set in 1999-00... Registered his 500th career point and 300th assist at Calgary on March 7... Scored his fourth shorthanded goal of the season at Detroit on Jan. 24, tying him for the franchise record. The goal also marked the 200th of his career... Scored his 20th and 21st goal of the season vs. the NY Islanders on Jan. 10, reaching the 20-goal mark in a season faster than any other player in franchise history (38 games)... Scored his first career penalty-shot goal at Chicago on Jan. 8... Named the NHL Offensive Player of the Week for the week of Oct. 10-16 (4g-3a-7pts in three Nashville victories)... Missed 13 games due to injury. Re-signed with Nashville on Aug. 16, 2005. PLAYOFFS: Posted two assists in five playoff games.

2003-04: Notched a career-high with 49 assists, tying for ninth in the NHL... Also registered career-highs in shots (218) and average ice time (20:55)... Became the first Predator to record two four-point games in one season... Named NHL Offensive Player of the Week for the week ending Feb. 22 (3gp, 5g-5a-10pts). Tied a franchise record with 10 points in three consecutive games and became the second player in NHL history to post 10-or-more points in his first three games with a new team (Wayne Gretzky accomplished the feat with Los Angeles in 1988)... Acquired by Nashville on Feb. 16 and posted his fourth career hat trick (along with an assist) in his first game as a Predator on Feb. 18 vs. San Jose... One of two players (along with Jukka Hentunen) to compile a multi-point effort in his Nashville debut. The first Predator to score three power-play goals in a single game and the first player since L.A.'s Dominic Lavoie (Oct. 9, 1993 vs. Detroit) to score three-or-more goals in his debut with a team... SCOUTING REPORT: Is a combination of a skilled and power forward... Very strong, has excellent hands and is a very good passer and playmaker... Makes and takes a difficult pass extremely well... Tough and strong on the puck and is a very smart player who is aware of where teammates are at all times... Reliable defensively, has incredibly quick feet and he can turn quickly while maintaining puck control.

QUOTEBOOK: "He will be a guy that brings character, leadership and grit to the organization. The character just exudes out of him and he is a kid that is going to be gritty when the game is on the line. He has a pro body already and is incredibly strong. He is a power forward with a style we have never been able to draft here." - Predators Assistant General Manager Paul Fenton.

(Nashville's second choice, 18th overall (first round), in 2008 Entry Draft).

CAREER NOTES: Won the Del Wilson trophy as the WHL's Goaltender of the Year while leading the Tri-City Americans to the Scotty Munro Trophy as the league's regular season champions in 2007-08... Led all WHL goaltenders in wins (46) and ranked fourth in the league in save percentage (.918) in 2007-08... His 46 wins set a Tri-City franchise record, breaking Brian Boucher's previous mark of 33 wins in 1995-96... Helped the Americans to the 2008 WHL Western Conference final with a 1.78 goals-against average and a .937 save-percentage in the playoffs... Attended Hockey Canada's "Program of Excellence" camp June 12-15, 2008 and Team Canada's National Junior team summer development camp July 25-29, 2008... His brother, Calvin, also a goaltender, is expected to play for the WHL's Seattle Thunderbirds in 2008-09... Wears number 37 because of Washington's Olaf Kolzig - Kolzig is also the owner of the Tri-City Americans.

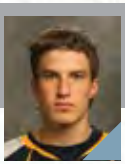
SCOUTING REPORT: Is very confident, very strong in the crease and isn't predictable... Net coverage is very good and reads the play well... Presents himself very well in the net and has very good goalie instincts... Is very consistent and is able to put any bad goals behind him.

QUOTEBOOK: "The comparable to him - without getting too ahead of ourselves - is Carey Price. He was tutored by him and has the same goalie coach as him. He plays the same 'percentages-style' of game as Carey. He is big and athletic and gets out of his net very well. He can skate and can handle the puck. His game also has a lot of mental toughness to it." - Predators Assistant General Manager Paul Fenton.



DEFENSE

ROMAN JOSI (RO-mahn JO-see)

Shoots left. • 6'1", 185 lbs. • Born, Bern, Switzerland, June 1, 1990.
(Nashville's third choice, 38th overall (second round), in 2008 Entry Draft).

CAREER NOTES: Rated the sixth European skater on Central Scouting's final rankings... Played with SC Bern in Switzerland's top division in 2007-08... Has represented Switzerland at both the World Junior Championships and the Under-18 World Championships each of the past two years... Tied for the Swiss team lead in points (1g-4a) and tied for fourth in assists among tournament defensemen at the 2008 Under-18 World Championships... SCOUTING REPORT: Gained valuable experience and confidence playing regularly with Bern, a top team in the senior Swiss league... Is a good playmaking defenseman with good decision-making ability and an ability to make tape-to-tape passes.

QUOTEBOOK: "We have seen Roman play for two seasons now and he has impressed us with his sense and skill. He has consistently been able to play and succeed against players much older than him as a 17 year old. His biggest strength is his strong hockey sense. He understands the game really well with and without the puck. One thing that really impressed us was his play against Canada at the Under-18 World Championships. He really met that challenge and was the best player on ice." - Predators European Amateur Scout Janne Kekalainen.

LEFT WING

TYLER STEFISHEN (TAI-luhr STEF-ish-ehn)

SCOUTING REPORT: Has a good overall skill set with good puck-handling skills... Is a good skater with good vision, but will need to get more involved in all areas of the ice in order for his game to develop at the next level.

QUOTEBOOK: "Taylor is a good two-way player who plays in all situations. He is competitive, and can produce offensively. He has a scorers' shot, but is also an unselfish player who thinks team first and displays a good deal of character and leadership qualities. He is good in the corners and an overall tough kid to play against." - Predators North American Amateur Scout Rick Knickle.

SCOUTING REPORT: A two-way centerman... A fluid skater who can glide well... Hard to play against because of his resilience and determination... A consistent worker... Used on the penalty kill and in critical moments... Has good hockey sense and reacts quick... Enthusiastic athlete who is very coachable.

QUOTEBOOK: "Jani understands the game well, likes practicing hard and will test his limits. I project him to be a valuable third-line centerman who is tough to play against because of his size, skating ability and determination. He has enough skill and sense to be even more than that after he is finished growing. His coach in juniors last year and coach of Espoo Blues elite league team where he plays now only have good things to say about him as a person. He will fit in with the Predator mentality really well." - Predators European Amateur Scout Janne Kekalainen.

TEAM NOTES

MODEL OF CONSISTENCY

By reaching the 2008 Stanley Cup Playoffs, the Predators are one of just seven franchises (along with Calgary, Dallas, Detroit, New Jersey, Ottawa and San Jose) to reach the postseason in each of the past four seasons. Nashville has recorded 398 points over the last four seasons (91 in 2003-04, 106 in 2005-06, 110 in 2006-07 and 91 in 2007-08).

STINGY WHILE A MAN DOWN

The Predators penalty kill finished the season at 85.4% efficiency, good for third-best in the NHL. On the road, the PK extinguished chances against at an 87.2% clip, the second best in the league. Overall the club allowed just 22 power-play goals against on the road, a franchise record. The Preds also closed out the 2007-08 regular season by setting a team record for consecutive games without allowing a man-advantage marker, going 16-for-16 in the final seven games.

GET THE LEAD, KEEP THE LEAD

Nashville finished with the league's third-best winning percentage when ahead after two periods, going 26-1-1 (.929). It also finished among the league leaders when scoring the first goal of the game (34-6-4, .773) and when leading after 20 minutes (24-4-2, .800).

CLUTCH DOWN THE STRETCH

Nashville saw its most success last season in the third period, where it racked up a Western-Conference best 89 goals, 19 better than 2006-07, to establish a franchise record for third-frame tallies. The Predators outscored their opponents by 16 in the final period of regulation (89-73).

SHARING THE WEALTH

The Predators finished the season with 152 five-on-five goals, good for second in the Western Conference, but did not have a single 30-goal scorer in the process. For the second time in franchise history, four players reached the 20-goal mark (J.P. Dumont – 29, Jason Arnott – 28, Alexander Radulov – 26 and Martin Erat - 23) while six others scored 10 or more goals.

WHITEWASHES

Goaltenders Dan Ellis and Chris Mason combined for 10 shutouts in 2007-08, the second-highest total in franchise history and the third highest in the league. With six of the 10, Ellis established a franchise record for blankings in a season. The Orangeville, Ont., native scored shutouts in two of his first three starts with the club, and finished the season with a pair in his final four regular-season games.

Additionally, the Preds were on the other end of a shutout only three times in 2007-08, and their plus-seven differential was tops in the league. Nashville went a franchise-record 70 games without a goalless contest from Oct. 25, 2007 to March 28, 2008.

CAPTAIN ARNOTT

Jason Arnott was named the fourth captain in franchise history on Sept. 12, 2007, and his consistency was crucial in the club's success in 2007-08. A veteran of 971 NHL games and a Stanley Cup winner in 2000, Arnott tied for the team lead in points (72), in addition to pacing the club in assists (44), power-play goals (13) and plus/minus rating (+19). His assist total not only tied a personal best, but established a franchise record for helpers by a center. The Collingwood, Ont., native also tallied 28 goals, giving him nine consecutive 20-goal seasons and 11 20-goal campaigns in his career. Arnott was also Nashville's representative on the Western Conference All-Star Team, becoming the sixth all-star selection in club history.

DUMONT HAS CAREER YEAR, MAKES MARK ON NASHVILLE'S RECORD BOOKS

In his second year with the franchise, J.P. Dumont led the team in goals (29) and tied for the team point lead (72), establishing career highs in both categories. He ranked among the NHL leaders with eight game-winning goals, in addition to tying a franchise record with the total. Dumont has put together four consecutive 20-goal seasons.

Dumont also made his mark on the franchise record books with arguably the most successful month the team has seen in January. He finished the first month of 2008 with 20 points (6g-14a) in 14 games, good for second in league scoring during that span and Second Star of the Month honors. Those totals do not include his closing out of December 2007 with goals in back-to-back contests, which enabled the Montreal, Que., native notch a career and franchise-best 16-game point streak with 22 points in that span (8g-12a). During the stretch he had a hand in 22 of the team's 51 goals (43.1%).

KEY ACQUISITIONS

Nashville flew under the radar at the 2008 Trade Deadline, but its two acquisitions - forwards Jan Hlavac, acquired from Tampa Bay for a seventh-round selection in the 2008 Entry Draft, and Brandon Bochenski, snagged from Anaheim for future considerations, played key roles for the club during its run to a playoff berth.

Hlavac totaled 13 points (3g-10a) after joining the club, and finished the regular season playing on the Predators top line with J.P. Dumont and Jason Arnott. He registered seven points (2g-5a) in the final six games of the year including points on each of the team's final four game-winning goals. Hlavac also got off to a fast start with the Predators, scoring a goal in his first game with the club, while notching four points (1g-3a) in his first four games after coming north from the Lightning.

Bochenski was crucial to the Preds 5-0-1 hot streak down the stretch that helped them reach the postseason as well , most notably scoring a goal while assisting on another in Nashville's rally from a three-goal deficit to top the St. Louis Blues in overtime on April 1.

ELLIS MAKES HISTORY

Dan Ellis not only established a franchise-record shutout streak by not allowing a goal in 233:39 - from the first period vs. Chicago on March 22 to 3:21 of overtime on March 30 at Detroit - he also ranks fifth in the NHL since 1943-44 in longest stretches without allowing a goal. Ellis turned aside 147 shots during the streak, and his pair of shutouts gave him six this season, setting a franchise record previously shared by Chris Mason and Tomas Vokoun in 2006-07. The Orangeville, Ont., native also turned aside a career-high 43 shots in whitewash at Columbus on March 25 (tied for the highest saves by a Nashville goalie during the 2007-08 season). Ellis ended the month of March with a 1.75 goals-against average and a .949 save percentage.

LEGWAND STANDS ALONE AMONG NASHVILLE SCORERS

With the first (goal) of his three points on Dec. 1 at Montreal, Nashville center David Legwand (121g-206a-327pts) passed Kimmo Timonen (79g-222a-301pts) for first on the franchise's all-time scoring list.

Nashville's first-ever draft selection (No. 2 overall in 1998), Legwand entered the 2008-09 season as the franchise's all-time leader in goals (121), game-winning goals (28), overtime points (5g-5a-10pts) and multiple-goal games (15). Legwand, who has now appeared in 548 NHL games, needs to play just 26 more games to pass Kimmo Timonen (573) for first on the team's all-time games played list. Legwand also sits second to Timonen (222) all-time in assists (206).

HEAD COACH BARRY TROTZ GETS HIS 300TH COACHING VICTORY

The Predators thrilling 4-3 victory over the Columbus Blue Jackets on Dec. 27 was the 300th win for both the Predators and Head Coach Barry Trotz, marking the 18th time a coach has won 300 games with a single NHL team. Buffalo Sabres Head Coach Lindy Ruff is the only other coach who has reached the milestone with his current club, and coaching legend Scotty Bowman is the lone bench boss to do it with two separate squads, winning more than 300 with both Montreal (419) and Detroit (410). Trotz enters 2008-09 13th in wins behind the bench of a single team with an all-time record of 324-308-106.

A couple weeks after his 300th win, Trotz coached his 700th career game on Jan. 13 vs. Chicago, becoming the 13th coach in NHL history to spend that many games coaching a single team. The Dauphin, Manitoba native enters the season 10th in all-time games coached behind, most recently passing Art Ross' tenure with the Boston Bruins from 1924-45.

March 1, 2003: Barry Trotz, the only coach in franchise history, coached his 392nd consecutive game with Nashville. The milestone established a mark for most NHL games coached by the first coach of an expansion team.

June 19, 2003: Brent Peterson was promoted to associate coach while Peter Horachek, formerly the head coach of the Predators' top developmental affiliate, the AHL's Milwaukee Admirals, was hired as an assistant coach.

June 21-22, 2003: The Nashville Predators hosted the 2003 NHL Entry Draft at the Sommet Center and made 13 picks overall, including eight of the first 98 players selected. Over 13,000 fans attended the two-day event which had an estimated economic impact of nearly $10 million on Middle Tennessee.

February 8, 2004: For the first time since the team's inaugural season, Nashville was represented in the NHL All-Star Game. Kimmo Timonen (who was named to the Game in 1999, but did not participate due to injury) and Tomas Vokoun both played for the Western Conference at the Xcel Energy Center.

FRANCHISE TIMELINE

April 3, 2004: On the second-to-last day of the 2003-04 regular season, a loss by the Edmonton Oilers clinched the Predators' first-ever berth in the NHL Stanley Cup Playoffs.

April 7, 2004: The Predators headed to Detroit to take on the top-seeded Red Wings in the franchise's first playoff game. Despite a goal off the stick of Adam Hall only 16 seconds into the game, Detroit held on for a 3-1 win.

April 11, 2004: In the first home playoff game in team history, the Predators earned their first playoff victory, a 3-1 decision over Detroit.

September 15, 2004: NHL commissioner Gary Bettman announced that the league's 30 teams would lock out players as the collective bargaining agreement expired.

February 15, 2005: NHL commissioner Gary Bettman officially announced the cancellation of the 2004-05 NHL season.

July 22, 2005: The NHL announced that the Board of Governors unanimously approved the new collective bargaining agreement, officially ending the lockout.

August 5, 2005: The Predators announced the signing of free-agent forward Paul Kariya, the first First-Team NHL All-Star to sign with Nashville.

October 5, 2005: After nearly 18 months of inactivity, the Predators returned to NHL action with a 3-2 victory over the San Jose Sharks in front of a capacity crowd at the Sommet Center.

October 8, 2005: In their second game of the 2005-06 season, the Predators won their first shootout, a 3-2 victory over Anaheim. Paul Kariya scored the game-deciding shootout goal against his former team.

March 18, 2006: Nashville defeated Calgary 9-4 at the Sommet Center for its 40th win of the 2005-06 season, the first 40-win season in franchise history. The Predators ended the season with a record of 49-25-8 and led the NHL with 32 home wins.

April 18, 2006: Paul Kariya netted a hat trick as part of a four-point game in Nashville's 6-3 win over Detroit in the team's 2005-06 regular-season finale. Kariya finished the season with 31 goals and 85 points, both franchise records. Steve Sullivan also netted 31 goals, and he and Kariya became the first Predators to score 30 or more goals in a season.

January 24, 2007: Kimmo Timonen represented Nashville in the 55th NHL All-Star Game in Dallas while head coach Barry Trotz served as an assistant coach for the Western Conference in the game.

February 15, 2007: The Predators acquired legendary center Peter Forsberg from the Philadelphia Flyers for the 2007 stretch run.

April 5, 2007: With a 4-1 win over the St. Louis Blues, Nashville hit the 50-win mark for the first time in franchise history. The club would end the 2006-07 regular season with a record of 51-23-8 for a franchise-record 110 points.

April 11, 2007: In their third trip to the NHL Stanley Cup Playoffs, the Predators went to sudden-death overtime for the first time in Game 1 of their first-round series against the San Jose Sharks. After rallying from a two-goal deficit to tie the contest at 4-4, Nashville was ultimately upended by the winning goal from San Jose's Patrick Rissmiller at 8:14 of the second overtime period.

May 18, 2007: The Predators and the Middle Tennessee-based Sommet Group entered into a multi-year naming-rights agreement, thus renaming the Nashville Arena as the "Sommet Center."

May 22, 2007: The Sporting News announced its 2006-07 awards and Predators GM David Poile was named NHL Executive of the Year and head coach Barry Trotz was named Coach of the Year. Both honors were determined by a votes of their peers.

PLAYOFFS

FOUR STRAIGHT SEASONS
The Nashville Predators were one of seven NHL teams that made their fourth consecutive playoff appearance in 2008, and faced the Detroit Red Wings in the Western Conference Quarterfinals for the second time in four seasons. Nashville finished 2007-08 with 91 points, the same number as when they fell to the Wings in six games in the franchise's first playoff appearance in 2004. Seven players from the 2004 squad suited up for the Predators against the Red Wings again in 2008 - goaltender Chris Mason, defensemen Marek Zidlicky and Dan Hamhuis, and forwards Martin Erat, David Legwand, Vernon Fiddler and Jordin Tootoo.

WEBER MOVES INTO A TIE WITH KARIYA
With four points in the first four games of the Predators WCQ series vs. Detroit, defenseman Shea Weber moved into a tie with Paul Kariya for first on the franchise's all-time playoff scoring list with nine points (3g-6a). Weber has appeared in 15 of the club's 16 postseason contests over the past three seasons, leading all defensemen in points in 2007 (3a), and tying for the overall point lead in 2008 (1g-3a).

PLAYOFF IRON MAN
With David Legwand missing three of the club's six playoff games in 2008, defenseman Dan Hamhuis became the only Predator to appear in all 22 postseason contests in franchise history. The Smithers, B.C., native has recorded at least a point in each series over the last four seasons, including his first career playoff goal in Game Four vs. Detroit in 2008.

PREDS STRIKE QUICK
In Game Four, Nashville scored 32 seconds apart in the first period (Dan Hamhuis, 5:18 & Shea Weber, 5:50), marking the third consecutive game it scored a pair in less than 40 seconds. The Preds also scored two goals in less than two minutes in Game One, and combined with the regular season, they scored two in less than two minutes six times on the Wings last season (combined with the regular season).

The Predators two goals in a nine-second span in the third period of Game Three (Ryan Suter, 16:03 & Jason Arnott, 16:12) set a franchise record for fastest two playoff goals, and was the first time in NHL postseason history that a team has gone from trailing to leading in less than 10 seconds. Those two goals snapped the previous record of 11 seconds, which the Preds attained in Game Two in Detroit (Alexander Radulov, 2:19 & Jordin Tootoo, 2:30).

SERIES QUICK HITS
The Predators outscored the Wings 6-5 in the second period over the course of the six-game series despite being outshot by a combined margin of 100-37 in the frame... The Predators and Red Wings have played 12 playoff games all-time, and nine have been determined by two goals or fewer... Dan Ellis stopped 52 shots in Game Five, setting a postseason franchise record for saves in a game. Between Detroit goals in the first period and overtime, he turned aside 49 consecutive shots. His postseason save percentage was .938, up 14 points from his league-leading mark of .924 during the regular season.

OTHER HIGHLIGHTS...

GAME 1 (APRIL 10): DETROIT RED WINGS 3, NASHVILLE PREDATORS 1 AT JOE LOUIS ARENA
Dan Ellis turned aside 37-of-39 shots in his playoff debut... Forwards Brandon Bochenski and Rich Peverley also made their playoff debuts... Jordin Tootoo scored his first career playoff goal.

GAME 2 (APRIL 12): DETROIT RED WINGS 4, NASHVILLE PREDATORS 2 AT JOE LOUIS ARENA
Jordin Tootoo scored his second goal in as many games... The Predators tied a franchise record for shots in a period and attained a new mark for road shots in a frame with 15 in first period.

GAME 3 (APRIL 14): NASHVILLE PREDATORS 5, DETROIT RED WINGS 3 AT SOMMET CENTER
Five goals tied a postseason mark for goals in a game, while three tallies in the third frame tied a record for playoff goals in a period... Nashville outshot Detroit by a 29-26 margin marking the first time in 13 games (combined with the regular season) that the Predators amassed more shots than the Red Wings... Alexander Radulov notched his third career playoff multi-point game (1g-1a) in his seventh postseason game ... Dan Ellis won his first career playoff game... Jan Hlavac collected two assists, his first career playoff multi-point outing... David Legwand made his series debut in Game Three and a goal in his return, his first playoff marker since Game Three of the Predators' 2004 WCQ series with Detroit... Ryan Suter collected a goal and an assist.

GAME 4 (APRIL 16): NASHVILLE PREDATORS 3, DETROIT RED WINGS 2 AT SOMMET CENTER
The victory gave Nashville back-to-back playoff wins for the second time in franchise history and the first since 2004 vs. Detroit... Nashville received all three of its goals from defensemen... Martin Erat (1g-3a) and Alexander Radulov (2g-2a) each registered a point for the third consecutive game. Erat's two assists was a career high ... Dan Ellis stopped 39-of-41 shots... Rich Peverley collected his first career playoff point/assist on Weber's first-period goal... Greg de Vries scored the game-winning goal, his first since Game One of the 2002 WCQ as a member of the Colorado Avalanche against Los Angeles.

GAME 5 (APRIL 18): DETROIT RED WINGS 2, NASHVILLE PREDATORS 1 AT JOE LOUIS ARENA
Detroit put 54 shots on goal, the highest total against in Nashville's postseason history... The Predators forced a playoff overtime for just the second time in franchise history when they scored with the goaltender at 19:16 of the third period.

GAME 6 (APRIL 20): DETROIT RED WINGS 3, NASHVILLE PREDATORS 0 AT THE SOMMET CENTER
Dan Ellis turned aside 40-of-42 shots, giving him 92 saves in the final two games of the series... Martin Erat led the Predators in ice time (24:32). It was highest total logged by a Nashville forward – playoffs and regular season combined – in 2007-08.

MEDIA INFORMATION

PRESS, RADIO & TV INFORMATION

PRESS INFORMATION
Inquiries about the Predators may be directed to Tim Darling (615-770-2380), Kevin Wilson (615-770-2335) or Greg Harvey (615-770-2363) of the club's communications department.

CREDENTIALS
Season passes are issued to those members of the media who regularly cover the Nashville Predators. These passes will be honored for entrance to the Sommet Center and all working areas for all 2008-09 regular-season home games. Single-game credentials must be submitted by email or faxed (615-770-2295) on company letterhead to Kevin Wilson (kwilson@nashvillepredators.com) by 1:00 p.m. on the day prior to the game in question. Press box space is limited; for this reason, the Predators cannot guarantee credentials to those members of the media who request such passes after the deadline.

Credentials will be issued only to representatives of legitimate news-gathering agencies and will be confiscated if worn by members of the media whose names do not appear on the credential. Only credentialed members of the media are allowed to sit in the press box.

MEDIA ENTRANCE
All credentialed media may enter the media/Suite Level Club entrance of the Sommet Center on Fifth Avenue. The entrance will be open three hours prior to face-off and credentials will be available at this entrance after it has been opened.

PHOTOGRAPHERS
Accredited photographers may shoot from the photo boxes adjacent to the players' benches and other designated areas. Freelance photographers will not be permitted. Location assignments are issued by the Predators' communications department and coordinated with team photographer John Russell. No roving passes will be issued.

PRESS BOX & RADIO/TV BOOTHS
The press box and radio/TV booths are located at the top of arena seats in sections 310 and 311 (southwest corner of the Sommet Center). All media should take the southwest corner freight elevator to the fourth level. The press box is equipped with VDT outlets, monitors, telephones and wireless internet service.

WIRELESS INTERNET SERVICE
Wireless internet service is available (free of charge) to media in the event-level media lounge and in the press box. For assistance, please contact Casey Millar at (615) 642-6203.

PRE-GAME
The Predators' locker room corridor will be open until 90 minutes before each game. A representative from the Predators' communications department will be present to assist members of the media wishing to interview players. Television and radio stations seeking live or taped pre-game interviews must request the coach or player and state the specific interview time to media relations representatives AT OR BEFORE the game-day skate.

POST-GAME
Head Coach Barry Trotz will be available in the event-level media lounge for his post-game press conference following each home game. The Predators' locker rooms will open no later than ten minutes following the conclusion of the game. Transcriptions of both head coaches' post-game press conferences, as well as various Predators player quotes from the locker room will be distributed to the media in a timely manner following each home game.

MEDIA WORK ROOMS
Workrooms and pre-game meals are available in the media dining area on the event level in the northwest corner of the arena. These rooms open three hours before the opening face-off. There is a second media lounge adjacent to sections 310 and 311. Statistical information, beverages and snacks will be available in the upper lounge during intermissions. Credentials must be displayed at all times to gain access to all media areas.

PRACTICE SESSIONS
Locker rooms will open ten minutes (maximum) after the conclusion of practice. In the event of a team meeting, the room will open at the conclusion of the meeting.

BETWEEN-PERIOD TV INTERVIEWS
Requests are to be made before or during the morning skate. A media relations representative will be on hand to assist with all requests.

PRESS, RADIO & TV INFORMATION

OFF-LIMITS
The medical room and shower and lavatory areas will be closed to all media. The main locker room, weight room and player lounge will be open to the media. Media are not permitted to enter the coaches' offices unless escorted by a member of the Predators communications department.

INJURY REPORTS
Predators General Manager David Poile, Head Coach Barry Trotz and communications personnel are the only Predators representatives who will offer comments on player injuries or injury updates.

ORDER OF SELECTION FOR 2009 ENTRY DRAFT

The NHL's annual Draft Drawing is a weighted lottery system to determine the order of selection for the first 14 picks of the 2009 Entry Draft.

The 14 teams that did not qualify for the Stanley Cup Playoffs, or clubs that acquired those clubs' 2009 first-round draft picks, participate in the Drawing.

The Club selected in the drawing may not move up more than four positions in the draft order, thus only the five Clubs with the fewest regular-season points had the opportunity to receive the first overall selection.

No Club can move down more than one position as a result of the Draft Drawing.

In the first round of the 2009 Entry Draft, the order of selection is as follows:

a) The first 14 selections, as determined by the Draft Drawing (see above);
b) Clubs eliminated in the first two rounds of the 2009 Stanley Cup Playoffs, regular-season division winners excluded, in inverse order of points;
c) Regular-season division-winning clubs eliminated in the first two rounds of the 2009 Stanley Cup Playoffs, in inverse order of points;
d) Clubs eliminated in the 2009 Conference Finals, in inverse order of points;
e) Stanley Cup Finalist
f) Stanley Cup champion

In the second and subsequent rounds the order of selection is as follows:

a) Non-playoff clubs in inverse order of points;
b) Clubs eliminated in the first two rounds of the 2009 Stanley Cup Playoffs, regular-season division winners excluded, in inverse order of points;
c) Regular-season division-winning clubs eliminated in the first two rounds of the 2009 Stanley Cup Playoffs, in inverse order of points;
d) Clubs eliminated in the 2009 Conference Finals, in inverse order of points;
e) Stanley Cup Finalist
f) Stanley Cup champion

ELIGIBILITY FOR CLAIM

a) All Players age 18 or older are eligible for claim in the Entry Draft, except:

i. a Player on the Reserve List of a Club, other than as a try-out;
ii. a Player who has been claimed in two prior Entry Drafts;
iii. a Player who previously played in the League and became a Free Agent pursuant to this Agreement;
iv. a Player age 21 or older who: (A) has not been selected in a previous Entry Draft and (B) played hockey for at least one season in North America when he was age 18, 19, or 20 and shall be eligible to enter the League as an Unrestricted Free Agent pursuant to Article 10.1(d); and 18
v. a Player age 22 or older who has not been selected in a previous Entry Draft and shall be eligible to enter the League as an Unrestricted Free Agent pursuant to Article 10.1(d).

UNSIGNED DRAFT CHOICES

a) A player aged 18 or 19 who was selected in the first three rounds of the Entry Draft and who was not signed by his NHL Club may not be retained by the Club and must be returned to his junior Club no later than the day prior to the opening of the NHL regular season.

b) A player aged 18 or 19 who was selected in the fourth or subsequent rounds who has not been signed by his NHL Club may not be retained by his Club and must be returned to his junior Club no later than the fourth day prior to the opening of the NHL regular season.

ENTRY LEVEL PLAYERS

1. Players 18 through 21 years of age when signing their first contract must remain in the entry-level system for a period of three years; players age 22 and 23 when signing their first contract are in the entry level system for two years; while those age 24 when first under contract are in the entry level system for one year. Age is defined as the player's age on September 15 of the calendar year in which he signs the contract, regardless of his actual age on the date he signs such contract.

2. In the event that a signed 18 or 19-year-old player does not play a minimum of 10 NHL games (regular season and/or playoffs) in his first season under contract, the term of his player contract and his number of years in the entry level system will be extended for a period of one year. The exception to this is a 19-year-old player who turns 20 years of age between September 16 and December 31 in his first contract year.

3. In the event that a player signs his first contract at age 18 and has had his Player Contract extended for one season already, and such player does not play at least 10 NHL games (regular season and/or playoffs) in the second season under that player's Player Contract, then the term of his Player Contract and his number of years in the Entry Level System shall be extended for one additional year.

HOCKEY OPERATIONS

23-MAN ROSTER

There may be a maximum of 23 players on each Club's playing roster at any one time from the commencement of the NHL regular season through the trade deadline. Prior to the start of the season, each Club must submit to the NHL its "Opening Day Playing Roster" which shall be comprised of not more than 23 players. Each Club must have a roster of at least 20 players, composed of 18 skaters and two goaltenders. Players on Injured Reserve do not count in the 23-Man Roster limit.

INJURED RESERVE LIST

In the event that a player is injured and a Club wishes to place him on the Injured Reserve List, the Club must follow these procedures.

1. A Club may place a player on the injured reserve list if such player is injured, disabled or ill and unable to perform his duties as a hockey player after having passed the Club's initial physical examination in that season.
2. A player who has an injury that renders him physically unable to play for a minimum of seven days after that date of the injury can be placed on the Club's Injured Reserve List. Once a player is placed on the injured reserve, the Club may replace said player on its NHL roster with another player. All determinations that a player has suffered an injury warranting injured reserve status must be made by the Club's medical staff and in accordance with the Club's medical standards.
3. A player placed on Injured Reserve is ineligible to compete in NHL games for a period of not less than seven days from the date of injury.
4. Players on Injured Reserve may attend Club meetings and meals, travel with the Club and participate in practice sessions.
5. Players on Injured Reserve are prohibited from appearing in games, participating in pre-game warm-ups with their Clubs, or dressing in game uniforms on game days.

REGULAR SEASON WAIVERS

For purposes of Regular Waivers and Re-Entry Waivers, the five (5) year exemption for an 18-year-old skater and the four (4) year exemption for a 19-year-old skater shall both be reduced to three (3) years commencing the first season that the 18 or 19 year old skater plays in eleven (11) NHL Games or more. The next two (2) seasons, regardless of whether the skater plays any NHL Games in either season, shall count as the second and third years toward satisfying the exemption. For purposes of Regular Waivers and Re-Entry Waivers, the six (6) year exemption for an 18 year old goalie and the five (5) year exemption for a 19 year old goalie shall both be reduced to four (4) years commencing the first season that the 18 or 19 year old goalie plays in eleven (11) NHL Games or more. The next three (3) seasons, regardless of whether the goalie plays any NHL Games in any of those three (3) seasons, shall count as the next three (3) years toward satisfying the exemption.

The first season in which a Player who is age 20 or older plays in one (1) or more Professional Games shall constitute the first year for calculating the number of years he is exempt from Regular Waivers and Re-Entry Waivers.

A Player 25 years old or older who plays in one (1) or more Professional Games in any season shall be exempt from Regular Waivers and Re-Entry Waivers for the remainder of that season.

TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURES

At the conclusion of the regular season, the standing of the teams in each Conference shall be determined in accordance with the following priorities in the order listed:

a) First place in each of the three (3) divisions seeded 1, 2, and 3.
b) The higher number of points earned by the Club.
c) The greater number of games won by the Club.
d) The higher number of points earned in games against each other among two (2) or more Clubs having equal standing under priority (b) and (c) **
e) The greater differential between goals scored for and against by Clubs having equal standing under priority (d).

 NOTE: For the purpose of determining standing under priority (d) for two or more tied Clubs that have not played an even number of games with one or more of the other tied Clubs, the first game played in the city that has the extra game (the "odd game") shall not be included. When more than two Clubs are tied, the percentage of available points earned in games among each other (and not including any "odd games") shall be used to determine standing.

SOMMET CENTER INFORMATION

The Sommet Center opened in December 1996 and has hosted more than 12 million guests. It has become Nashville's No. 1 venue for large-scale musical productions, as well as one of the nation's most highly-acclaimed entertainment and sports venues. Seating capacity is approximately 20,000 for concerts, 19,395 for basketball and 17,113 for Nashville Predators games.

Formerly known as the Nashville Arena and the Gaylord Entertainment Center, the building became the Sommet (pronounced SO-may) Center on May 18, 2007 after the Tennessee-based Sommet Group entered into a multi-year naming-rights partnership with the Predators and Powers Management. The Sommet Group is an established, family-owned collection of companies that provides non-revenue generating business functions (such as human resources administration, payroll processing, insurance and risk management services, tailored benefits programs, as well as information technology consulting and customized software development) to small and medium-sized businesses throughout the United States.

A new state-of-the-art integrated scoring and video display system using the latest in sports videoboard technology was installed in the building in August 2007, just prior to the 2007-08 NHL season. Designed and constructed by ANC Sports in New York, the board is 100 percent LED-based and runs on a digital operating system, which also required a new control room to be build near the entrance tunnel to the arena bowl. The renovations were part of a more than $4 million facelift to the Sommet Center during the summer of 2007.

The entrance to the Sommet Center is positioned on the corner of Broadway and Fifth Avenue facing the Ryman Auditorium, the original home of the Grand Ole Opry. The architects designed this as a tribute to Nashville's music roots.

The development of the arena exemplifies the city's changing persona and has been a catalyst for other projects in the surrounding area including the Country Music Hall of Fame, the downtown public library, the Frist Center for the Visual Arts and the Schermerhorn Symphony Center. A number of downtown living options – including several new luxury condominiums – continue to spring up in close proximity to the Sommet Center.

Initiated by Nashville Mayor Phil Bredesen and approved by the Metro/Davidson County Council in 1993, the Sommet Center uniquely embraces Nashville's heritage as "Music City, U.S.A." For the event planner, the spectator, the athlete and the performer, the arena is equipped to deliver the latest in high-quality, "user-friendly" features. A soundstage-quality rehearsal hall is a part of the facility, making the arena a perfect site for concert performers.

In addition to serving as the home of the Nashville Predators, the Sommet Center has hosted a wide variety of sporting events including the U.S. National Figure Skating Championship (1997), the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament (2000, 2003 & 2005), the SEC Men's Basketball Tournament (2001, 2006 & 2010), the SEC Women's Basketball Tournament (2002, 2004 & 2008) and the 2003 NHL Entry Draft.

Community events have included the annual Mayor's First Day Festival and the Country Freedom Concert benefiting the Salvation Army Disaster Relief Fund. The venue also hosted the 2006 and 2007 CMA Awards shows, which were broadcasted live to national audiences on network television.

Featured performers at the Sommet Center have included Beyonce, Garth Brooks, Justin Timberlake, Elton John, Billy Joel, Metallica, Pavarotti, Cher, Toby Keith, Simon & Garfunkel, Bruce Springsteen, Eric Clapton, The Rolling Stones, Neil Diamond, Tina Turner, Alan Jackson, the Dixie Chicks, Kenny Chesney as well as Tim McGraw and Faith Hill.

ARENA QUICK FACTS

- Nominated for the 2007 Pollstar Concert Industry Venue of the Year award.

- Features a 22-story tower that (in its base) houses the Nashville Convention & Visitors Bureau Visitors' Center, the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame, XM Radio studio/channel and a 70-seat theater.

- The Nashville Convention and Visitors Bureau (CVB) operates a state-of-the-art Visitor Information Center in the glass tower of the Sommet Center. The staffed center, which welcomes more than half a million visitors a year, is open seven days a week, with extended hours in the summer and during Sommet Center events. In addition to literature, maps, discount coupons and general information, the center features exhibits, children's programming ideas, an on-line information station and a great selection of Nashville merchandise. For more information, visit www.nashvillecvb.com.

- The Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame Museum is a 7,200-sq.-ft. facility located on the main level of the Sommet Center. The Museum features interactive games and displays such as a Nashville Predators showcase, a virtual reality one-on-one basketball game, a strength training apparatus used by Olympic swimmers, college football and basketball exhibits, NASCAR video games, two 30-seat theaters with sports videos and more.

- The 260-seat, 7,000-sq.-ft. Suite Level Club is located on the lower suite level and is accessible from Fifth Avenue. A central kitchen and full catering facility serves the club as well as the suites and club seats. The fine-dining experience is open before and after games and hosts a number of banquets and receptions. To make reservations, call (615) 770-2477.

- The 225-seat All-Inclusive Zone is at the south end of the Sommet Center overlooking the ice. In addition, the club-level bar and grill on the building's west side has been upgraded to feature cafe-style tables and seating.

- New for the 2008-09 season, the FSN Zone located just off the main concourse is a permanent sports bar with an area capable of hosting Predators post-game shows and other sports programming. The FSN Zone features tabletop seating and flat-screen high-definition televisions.

- A 13,500-square-foot rehearsal hall is connected to the Sommet Center. The space, used by a number of touring acts, is available for rent.

- The Predators Pro Shop is located in the main lobby and is accessible from the entrance at Fifth and Broadway. For store hours and information, please call (615) 770-2434.

- The Sommet Center hosts Metro's Registry of Deeds (615-862-6790) and the Metro North Police precinct.

- From floor to ceiling, the highest point in the Sommet Center reaches 130 feet (about the height of a 13-story building) with the roof covering eight acres.

- There are four levels of seating at the arena. Handicapped-accessible seating is available at every level and the building holds two escalators.

- Linked to the Nashville Convention Center by a climate-controlled underground pedestrian walkway, the building is able to accommodate large conventions and major national entertainment and sporting events.

- An attached parking garage includes 250 parking spaces for suiteholders, handicapped patrons and regular patron parking. There are more than 12,500 public parking spaces located within a 10-minute walk from the facility.

ADA ACCESSIBLE PARKING AND SEATING

There is free ADA parking in the Sommet Center's 6th Avenue garage with a permit. The 6th Avenue garage will open one hour before the doors open. There is ADA seating available in every price range. Sitting in an ADA-designated seat without a ticket for that seat is strictly prohibited. All Sommet Center restrooms are wheelchair accessible. For convenience, there are unisex-accessible restrooms located throughout the Sommet Center at sections 103, 109, 111, 117, 216, 312 and 322.

SAFETY AND COURTESY

- There is serious risk and danger incidental to the game of hockey. Injury due to flying pucks and sticks that leave the playing area can happen at any point during the game, even during warm-ups.
- In order to keep play visible for those seated, all guests are asked to wait for a stoppage in play before leaving or returning to the seating area.

ATM MACHINES

ATM machines are located under the escalator in the main food court, outside Section 1177 as well as near the Visitors Center.

LOST AND FOUND

The Sommet Center Lost and Found is located at the fan relations booth at section 120 during games. After events, please call the security office (615-770-2050).

MERCHANDISE

The Predators Pro Shop is located in the main food court while merchandise kiosks are located throughout the building. Call 615-770-2434 for Pro Shop hours on non-game days.

SEATING

- Patrons 24 months and older are required to have a ticket.
- Exit/re-entry into the Sommet Center is strictly prohibited.
- Smoking is prohibited and against the law inside the Sommet Center. Guests wishing to smoke may do so on the fourth level parking garage near section 313, or outside the south entrance to the building near section 113.
- Patrons must retain their ticket stubs and be ready to show them to the usher each time they re-enter the seating area.

GENERAL

- Selling tickets on Sommet Center property is strictly prohibited.
- Bottles, cans, food, beverages, coolers, laser pointers, beach balls, frisbees, noise makers, fireworks, illegal items, drugs and alcohol, video cameras, still cameras with lenses larger than 200 mm, weapons and dangerous devices of any kind are all strictly prohibited in the Sommet Center. All guests found with any of these items will be subject to ejection from the building.
- Banners over 2'x3' are prohibited.
- Intoxicated patrons will not be allowed into the Sommet Center, and will be subject to ejection if found inside the building.
- All fans in the Sommet Center must be properly dressed at all times. Shirts and shoes are required at all times and fans dressed inappropriately will be subject to ejection from the facility.

CENTENNIAL SPORTSPLEX

222 25th Avenue North, Nashville, TN 37203 • (615) 862-8480

The Thomas Frist Centennial Sportsplex is operated by the Metro Board of Parks and Recreation in Nashville. The facility was made possible by a landmark land exchange between Metro Parks and healthcare giant HCA (now Columbia). The city exchanged 10 prime acres adjacent to Centennial Park for $12 million. The money was used to build the Sportsplex.

The Sportsplex features a tennis center, a fitness center, an aquatics center and a two-sheet ice arena. The aquatics center, named after Olympian Tracy Caulkins, has been the site of numerous national swim meets and, to this date, holds the world record for the men's 50-meter freestyle, set in the inaugural swim meet in February 1990 by Olympian Tom Jager.

The ice arena is home to the Nashville Predators' state-of-the-art practice facility which opened on February 1, 1999. The Sportsplex is also the home of the Predators' youth hockey school, summer development camp and training camp, and the complex also features a Predators Pro Shop.

In addition, Centennial Sportsplex hosts adult hockey leagues, figure skating, numerous public sessions, figure skating competitions, ice shows, hockey tournaments and camps. In 1997, it was one of the sites for the USFSA National Championships.

The fitness center includes free weights and weight machines for complete workouts as well as daily aerobics classes.

Centennial Sportsplex offers instructional classes in skating, swimming and tennis, as well as public usage in each of those areas. The ice arena and aquatic area also offers special rates for parties, schools and group events. For further information, contact the Centennial Sportsplex at (615) 862-8480.

MEDICAL GLOSSARY

ABDUCTION: Movement of a joint away from the center of the body.

AC JOINT (ACROMIOCLAVICULAR JOINT): Joint of the shoulder where acromion process of the shoulder blade and the distal end of the collarbone meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.

ADDUCTION: Movement of a joint toward the center of the body.

ADHESION: Abnormal adherence of collagen fibers to surrounding structures during immobilization following trauma or as a complication of surgery which restricts normal elasticity of the structures involved; or scar tissue which forms after trauma or surgery which can restrict normal motion.

AEROBIC: Exercise in which energy needed is supplied by oxygen inspired and is required for sustained periods of vigorous exercise with a continually high pulse rate.

ANABOLIC STEROIDS: Steroids that promote tissue growth by creating protein in an attempt to enhance muscle growth. The main anabolic steroid is testosterone (male sex hormone).

ANAEROBIC: Exercise without the use of oxygen as an energy source; short bursts of vigorous exercise.

ANTERIOR CRUCIATE LIGAMENT (ACL): A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

ANTI-INFLAMMATORY: Any agent which prevents inflammation, such as aspirin or ibuprofen.

ARTERIOGRAM: A film demonstrating arteries after injection of a dye.

ARTHROGRAM: X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears of the shoulder.

ARTHROSCOPE: An instrument used to visualize the interior of a joint cavity.

ARTHROSCOPY: A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by means of observation through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm a diagnosis.

ATROPHY: To shrivel or shrink from disuse; as in muscular atrophy.

BAKER'S CYST: Localized swelling of a bursa sac in the back of the knee as a result of fluid that has escaped from the knee capsule. A Baker's cyst indicates that there is a trauma inside the knee joint that leads to excessive fluid production.

BONE SCAN: An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labeled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bone injury. If the radioactive substance is taken up by the bone at the injury site, the injury will show as a 'hot spot' on the scan image.The bone scan is particularly useful in the diagnosis of stress fractures.

BURSA: A fluid-filled sac located in areas where friction is likely to occur. The bursa sac minimizes the friction, for example, between a tendon and bone.

CARTILAGE: Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating. Most joints use this to cover bones next to each other. A meniscus is made of cartilage.

CAT SCAN (COMPUTERIZED TOMOGRAPHY): Use of a computer to produce a cross-sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from x-ray data.

CHONDROMALACIA: Roughening of the articular cartilage. Best known for the roughening of the underside of the kneecap, which can occur in any kneecap injury.

CLAVICLE: Collarbone; the bone connecting the breastbone with the shoulder blade.

COCCYX: The 'tailbone,' a group of four vertebrae that are fused together to form a small triangular bone, located at the terminal end of the spine.

CONCUSSION: Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. It can be graded as mild, moderate or severe, depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.

CONTUSION: An injury to a muscle and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.

CORTICOSTEROIDS: Used to suppress joint inflammation and inflammation in a bursa or near tendons.

CRYOTHERAPY: A treatment with the use of cold.

CYST: Abnormal sac containing liquid or semi-solid matter.

DEGENERATIVE JOINT DISEASE: Changes in the joint surfaces as a result of repetitive trauma and 'wear and tear'.

DELTOID LIGAMENT: Ligament that connects the tibia to bones of the medial aspect of the foot and is primarily responsible for stability of the ankle on the medial side. Is sprained less frequently than other ankle ligaments.

DELTOID MUSCLE: Muscles at the top of the arm, just below the shoulder, responsible for shoulder motions in the front, side and back.

DISC INTERVERTEBRAL: A flat, rounded plate between each vertebrae of the spine. The disc consists of a thick fiber ring which surrounds a soft gel-like interior. It functions as a cushion and shock absorber for the spinal column.

DISLOCATION: Complete displacement of joint surfaces.

ELECTROMYOGRAM (EMG): Test to determine nerve function.

EPICONDYLITIS: Inflammation in the elbow due to overuse. Common in tennis players (outer part of elbow) and golfers (inner part of elbow).

ETIOLOGY: Study of the cause of injury and disease.

EXTENSION: Action of straightening of a joint as achieved by an extensor muscle.

FASCIA: A connective tissue sheath consisting of fibrous tissue and fat which unites the skin to the underlying tissue.

FAT PERCENTAGE: The amount of body weight that is adipose, fat tissue. Fat percentage can be calculated by underwater weighing, measuring select skinfold thickness or by analyzing electrical impedance.

FEMUR: Thighbone; longest bone in the body.

FIBULA: Smaller of the two bones in the lower leg; runs from the knee to the ankle along the outside of the lower leg.

FLEXIBILITY: The ability of muscle to relax and yield to stretch forces.

FRACTURE: Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress or transverse.

GLENOHUMERAL: The shoulder girdle; consists of the glenoid capsule, head of the humerus and labrum.

GLENOID: Cavity of the scapula into which the head of the humerus fits to form the shoulder girdle.

GLENOID LABRUM: A rim of fibrocartilaginous tissue attached around the margin of the glenoid fossa.

GRADE ONE INJURY: A mild injury in which ligament, tendon or other musculoskeletal tissue may have been stretched, but not torn or otherwise disrupted.

GRADE TWO INJURY: A moderate injury in which musculoskeletal tissue has been partially, but not totally torn, causing appreciable limitation in function of the injured tissue.

GRADE THREE INJURY: A severe injury in which tissue loss has been significant, and in many cases, totally torn or otherwise disrupted, causing a virtual loss of function.

GROIN: Junction of the thigh and abdomen, location of muscles that rotate, flex and adduct the hip.

HAMMER TOE: Condition when the first digit of a toe is at a different angle that the remaining digits of the same toe.

HAMSTRING: Category of muscle that runs from the buttocks to the knee along the back of the thigh. It functions to flex the knee and is often times injured as a result of improper conditioning or lack of muscle flexibility.

MEDICAL GLOSSARY

HEMARTHROSIS: Accumulation of blood within a joint as a result of an acute injury.

HEMATOMA: Mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity or in soft tissues.

HIP POINTER: Contusion to the iliac crest.

HYDROTHERAPY: Treatment using water.

HYPEREXTENSION: Extreme extension of a limb or body part.

ILIOTIBIAL BAND: A thick, wide fascial layer that runs from the iliac crest to the knee joint on the outside of the thigh.

INFLAMMATION: The body's natural response to injury in which the injury site might display various degrees of pain, swelling, heat, redness and/or loss of function.

ISOMETRIC CONTRACTION: Muscular contraction in which tension is developed but no mechanical work is done.

LABRUM (LABRUM GLENOIDULE): The cartilage of the glenoid cavity in the shoulder. A lip-edged or lip-like structure.

LATERAL COLLATERAL LIGAMENT (LCL): Ligament of the knee along the outer aspect that connects the femur to the fibula. It provides lateral stability to the joint.

LIGAMENT: Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

MAGNETIC RESONANCE IMAGING (MRI): Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc and meniscus injuries.

MEDIAL COLLATERAL LIGAMENT (MCL): Ligament of knee along the inner aspect that connects the femur to the tibia.

MENISCUS: Crescent-shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as cartilage. There are two menisci in the knee -medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.

METACARPALS: Five long bones of the hand, joining the fingers to the wrist.

METATARSALS: Five long bones of the foot, running from the ankle to the toes.

MYOSITIS: Inflammation of a muscle.

ORTHOTIC: Any device applied to or around the body of physical impairment of disability. Commonly used to control foot mechanics.

OSTEOCHONDRITIS DESSICANS: A piece of bone and/or cartilage loosened from its attachment after trauma and a cause of a lesion.

OSTEOMYELITIS: An inflammatory disease of bone caused usually by infection with streptococcus or staphylococcus bacteria.

PATELLA: The kneecap. The patella functions to protect the distal end of the femur as well as increase the mechanical advantage and force generating capacities of the quadriceps muscle group.

PLANTAR FASCIITIS: Inflammation of the plantar (a thick tissue on the bottom of the foot which helps create the arch) fascia; associated with overuse or acute foot injury.

POSTERIOR CRUCIATE LIGAMENT (PCL): A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that provides significant stability and prevents displacement of the tibia backward within the knee joint. A complete tear of this ligament necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

QUADRICEP MUSCLES: A group of four muscles of the front thigh that run from the hip and form a common tendon at the patella; they are responsible for knee extension.

RADIUS: Bone in the forearm from elbow to the thumb side of the wrist.

RECONSTRUCTION: Surgical rebuilding of a joint using natural, artificial or transplanted materials.

ROTATOR CUFF: Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area that can be irritated by overuse. The muscles are the supraspinatus (most commonly injured), infraspinatus, teres minor and subscapularis.

SACROILIAC: Junction of the sacrum, the lower back bone, with the pelvis.

SACRUM: Group of five fused vertebrae located just below the lumbar vertebrae of the lower back, which form part of the pelvis.

SCAPULA: Shoulder blade.

SCIATICA: Irritation of the sciatic nerve resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the leg.

SCIATIC NERVE: Major nerve that carries impulses for muscular action and sensations between the low back and thigh and lower leg; it is the longest nerve in the body.

SHIN SPLINT: A catch-all syndrome describing pain in the shin that is not a fracture or tumor and cannot be defined otherwise.

SPLEEN: Large, solid organ responsible for the normal production and destruction of blood cells located under the left rib cage.

SPONDYLOSIS: Abnormal vertebral fixation or immobility.

SPRAIN: Injury resulting from the stretching or twisting of the joint and causes various degrees of stretching or tearing of a ligament or other soft tissue at the joint.

STRAIN: Injury resulting from a pulling or torsion to the muscle or tendon that causes various degrees of stretching or tearing to the muscle or tendon tissue.

STRESS FRACTURE: A hair-line type of break in a bone. Caused by overuse.

SUBLUXATION: Partial dislocation of a joint. The term usually implies that the joint can return to a normal position without formal reduction.

SYNOVIAL FLUID: Lubricating fluid for joints and tendons, produced in synovium, or the inner lining of a joint.

SYNOVITIS: Inflammation of the synovial lining of a joint.

TALUS: The ankle bone that articulates with the tibia and fibula to form the ankle joint.

TARSALS: Group of seven bones of the foot consisting of the calnavicular, talus, cuboid and three cuneiform bones.

TENDINITIS: Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury.

TENDON: Tissue that connects muscle to bone.

TENOSYNOVITIS: Swelling or inflammation of a tendon sheath caused by calcium deposits, repeated strain or trauma.

TIBIA: Shin bone; larger of the two bones of the lower leg and is the weight-bearing bone of the shin.

TRANSCUTANEOUS ELECTRICAL NERVE STIMULATOR (TENS): An electrical modality that sends a mild current through pads at the injury site which stimulates the brain to release the natural analgesic endorphin.

TRANSVERSE PROCESS: Small lateral projection off the right and left side of each vertebrae that functions as an attachment site for muscles and ligaments of the spine.

TRICEPS: Muscle of the back of the upper arm, primarily responsible for extending the elbow.

ULNA: Inner bone of the forearm that runs from the tip of the elbow to the little finger side of the wrist.

ULNAR NERVE: Nerve in the elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing.

ULTRASOUND: An electrical modality that transmits a sound wave through an applicator into the skin to the soft tissue in order to heat the local area for relaxing the injured tissue and/or disperse edema.

"WIND KNOCKED OUT": Syndrome describing a contraction of the abdominal nerve truck, the solar plexus, as a result of an abdominal contusion.

VANDERBILT MEDICAL STAFF

Vanderbilt Sports Medicine

JOHN E. KUHN, M.D.

HEAD TEAM PHYSICIAN AND ORTHOPAEDIC SURGEON

Dr. Kuhn received his medical training and completed his orthopaedic residency at the University of Michigan before travelling to Vail, Colo., where he served as a fellow in Orthopaedic Sports Medicine and Shoulder Surgery at the prestigious Steadman-Hawkins Clinic. He has served as team physician for the University of Michigan, the USA Hockey National Team Development Program, the U.S. Olympic Committee, Vanderbilt University and the Nashville Sounds baseball team. Dr. Kuhn also serves as a consulting physician for both the NFL and NHL players' associations. Dr. Kuhn and his wife, Janet, have three children: Andrew, Hobey and Katie.

JAMES L. CAREY, M.D.

ASSISTANT TEAM PHYSICIAN AND ORTHOPAEDIC SURGEON

Dr. Carey attended the University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine and then completed his residency in Orthopaedic Surgery at the Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania. He subsequently, completed a Sports Medicine and Shoulder Surgery Fellowship at Vanderbilt University Medical Center. He currently serves as a team physician at Belmont University and Vanderbilt University and sees patients at Vanderbilt Orthopaedics at Cool Springs. Dr. Carey received the Ranawat Award from the Eastern Orthopaedic Association for investigating the outcomes of anterior cruciate ligament injuries to running backs and wide receivers in the National Football League. He and his wife Carolyn reside in Franklin with their son Jackson.

ASSISTANT TEAM PHYSICIAN AND ORTHOPAEDIC SURGEON

Dr. Cox earned his medical degree from the University of Tennessee, College of Medicine, graduating Alpha Omega Alpha. He fulfilled his orthopaedic training at Tulane University Medical Center in New Orleans, serving as chief resident in his final year, followed by completion of the Sports Medicine and Shoulder Surgery fellowship at Vanderbilt University Medical Center. He currently serves as a team physician for Vanderbilt University and the Nashville Sounds baseball team. His clinical interests include care of knee and shoulder pathology with an emphasis on arthroscopic treatment techniques. Dr. Cox resides in Nashville with his wife, Joy.

PAUL J. RUMMO, D.O.

INTERNAL MEDICINE PHYSICIAN

Dr. Rummo attended medical school at the University of New England College of Osteopathic Medicine. He completed his Internal Medicine Residency at Memorial Health Care followed by a fellowship in Primary Care Sports Medicine at Vanderbilt University. After fellowship, Dr. Rummo practiced at Vanderbilt Sports Medicine Center where he served as team physician for Vanderbilt University, Belmont University and also served as Associate Medical Director of the Country Music Marathon. After four years of practicing in his native New Hampshire from 2001-05, Dr. Rummo returned to Vanderbilt Sports Medicine where he was named the Medical Director of Vanderbilt Orthopaedics at Cool Springs. Dr. Rummo resides in Franklin with his wife, Becky, and their children: Quentin, Lilyana, Camden and Laney.

VANDERBILT MEDICAL STAFF

ALEX DIAMOND, D.O.

ASSISTANT INTERNAL MEDICINE PHYSICIAN

Dr. Diamond completed his medical training at Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine. He went on to complete his residency training in Pediatrics at St. Christopher's Hospital for Children and later his fellowship training in Primary Care Sports Medicine at Vanderbilt University. In addition to the Predators, Dr. Diamond serves as team physician for Vanderbilt and Belmont Universities, Antioch High School and the Nashville Sounds. Dr. Diamond is a member of the American Medical Society for Sports Medicine, the American College of Sports Medicine and the American Academy of Pediatrics.

DANIEL S. WEIKERT, M.D.

TEAM OPHTHALMOLOGIST

Dr. Weikert received his medical degree from Vanderbilt University and completed his residency program at the Vanderbilt Department of Ophthalmology. He is board certified in ophthalmology by the American Board of Ophthalmology. Following the completion of his residency, he joined the Eye Associates of Middle Tennessee. He is also the team ophthalmologist for the Tennessee Titans. Dr. Weikert has previous experience providing eye care for the Tennessee State University and Vanderbilt University athletic departments. Dr. Weikert practices general ophthalmology with a special interest in refractive laser surgery. He is the proud father of Abigail, Alexander and Nicholas.

BRUCE SHACK, M.D.

TEAM PLASTIC SURGEON

Bruce Shack is the Professor and Chairman of the Department of Plastic Surgery at Vanderbilt University Medical Center. He received his medical degree from the University of Texas Medical Branch at Galveston in 1973, then came to Vanderbilt University Medical Center where he completed his residency in both General Surgery and Plastic Surgery. He was certified by the American Board of Surgery in 1979 and by the American Board of Plastic Surgery in 1981. After a stay at Johns Hopkins Medical School, he returned to Vanderbilt as Assistant Professor of Plastic Surgery. Dr. Shack and his wife Wanda Kaye live in Nashville.

KEVIN HAGAN, M.D.

TEAM PLASTIC SURGEON

Born in Cleveland, Dr. Hagan received both his bachelor's and medical degrees from Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore. After completing a residency in General Surgery at the Medical College of Virginia, he completed both a plastic surgery residency and a micro-surgery fellowship at the University of California – San Francisco. Dr. Hagan came to Vanderbilt in 1982. Dr. Hagan was a recipient of the Henry Strong Dennison Research Scholar Award. He has published extensively on topics in reconstructive, cranio-facial and trauma surgery. Dr. Hagan and his wife, Janie, have two children Elise Marie and Scott Lawrence.

CRISTIN M. WALLACE, D.D.S.

TEAM DENTIST

Dr. Wallace has been practicing dentistry for 11 years after graduating from the University of Tennessee Dental School. Dr. Wallace is a member of the American Dental Association, Tennessee Dental Association, Nashville Dental Society and the American Academy of Cosmetic Dentistry. Dr. Wallace is proud to be carrying on her father's (the late Dr. James McPherson), and brother's (the late Dr. Will McPherson) love of cosmetic and restorative family dental care. In addition to working with the Predators, Wallace also serves as the team dentist for the Tennessee Titans. Dr. Wallace and her husband, Brody, are the proud parents of Parks, an aspiring future Predator, and Sara Mac.

HOW TO FIGURE

Assist An assist is awarded to the player or players (maximum of two) who touched the puck prior to the goal, provided no defender plays or possesses the puck in between.

Game played A player receives credit for playing in a game if: i) he steps on the ice during time played or; ii) serves any penalty.

Game-winning goal After the final score has been determined, the goal which leaves the winning club one goal ahead of its opponent is the game-winning goal (example: if Team A beats Team B 8-3, the player scoring the fourth goal for Team A receives credit for the game-winning goal).

Goal A goal is awarded to the last player on the scoring club to touch the puck prior to the puck entering the net.

Goals-against average Multiply goals allowed (GA) by 60 and divide by minutes played (MINS).

Goaltender A goaltender receives a "W" for a win in regulation, overtime or shootout; an "L" for a loss in regulation; or an "OT" for a loss in overtime or shootout.

Penalty-killing pct. Subtract total number of power-play goals allowed from total number of shorthanded situations to get total number of power-plays killed. Divide the total number of power-plays killed by the total number of shorthanded situations.

Plus-minus A player receives a "plus" if he is on the ice when his club scores an even-strength or shorthanded goal. He receives a "minus" if he is on the ice for an even-strength or shorthanded goal scored by the opposing club. The difference in these numbers is considered the player's plus-minus statistic.

Power-play goal A goal scored by a club while it has a manpower advantage due to an opponent's penalty. Following are some examples of what is and is not considered a power-play goal:

- if a club has an advantage on a minor penalty starting at 2:02 of the period and it scores at 4:02, the goal is not a power-play goal.
- if a club scores on a delayed penalty, the goal is not a power-play goal.
- if a club has an advantage due to a five-minute major or match penalty, that club is always credited with having one more advantage than the number of power-play goals it scores during that advantage, because the penalty does not expire. A new advantage begins after each power-play goal. For example, if Team A scores three goals during a major penalty, it is credited with four advantages.
- if a club is on a power-play for any length of time, it is considered to have had an advantage.
- if a minor penalty is incurred by a club on a power-play due to a major penalty, a new advantage is given to that club when its minor penalty expires, provided the opponent's major penalty is still in effect.

Power-play percentage Total number of power-play goals divided by total number of power-play opportunities.

Save percentage Subtract goals allowed (GA) from shots against (SA) to determine saves. Then divide saves by shots-against.

Shooting percentage Divide the number of goals scored by the number of shots taken.

Shorthanded goal A goal scored by a club while it is at a manpower disadvantage. The same cases apply for shorthanded as for power-play goals, but in the opposite manner.

Shot on goal If a player shoots the puck with the intention of scoring and if that shot would have gone in the net had the goaltender not stopped it, the shot is recorded as a "shot on goal".

Shutout If two goaltenders combine for a shutout, neither receives credit for the shutout. Instead it is recorded as a club shutout.

Tenths of a second If a penalty or goal occurs in the last minute, the time is rounded off to the previous second (ex: if a penalty is called with 12.4 seconds left in a period, the time is indicated as 19:47 and not 19:48.)

Coaches' record A coach receives a "W" for a win in regulation, overtime or shootout; an "L" for a loss in regulation; or an "OT" for a loss in overtime or shootout.

 NOTE: No individual skater/goaltender statistics apply for the shootout

NAME & LOGO

The Predators unveiled their logo, a saber-toothed tiger, in Nashville's downtown First American Center on September 25, 1997, 26 years after a fang and foreleg bone of a saber-toothed tiger were found in a cave just below the building's address.

In May of 1971, excavation began at the downtown Nashville site of what today is the 28-story Regions Center. Construction workers drilled through 20 feet of solid rock before coming to a soft muddy area. Further digging revealed a cave containing the nine-inch fang and a foreleg bone of a saber-toothed tiger, extinct for at least 10,000 years.

Radiocarbon tests on the specimen revealed that it could have possibly been one of the last of its breed to exist. Scientists believe that some time during the last glacial period (15,000-80,000 years ago) part of the cave was the den of the saber-toothed tiger.

The discovery, made in August 1971, marks only the fifth of its kind in North America. The cave, located beneath the building, is preserved under concrete for historic and educational purposes.

The saber-toothed tiger logo was co-designed by JDK Design of Burlington, Vermont and Dye, Van Mol & Lawrence of Nashville.

The naming of the Predators is a direct reflection of the fans of Nashville and their choice.

On September 27, 1997, Nashville's NHL expansion team hosted the Ice Breaker Bash to launch a season ticket campaign that would ultimately sell over 12,000 season tickets in just six months.

During the Bash and through focus groups and related surveys, fans selected the name "Predators" by an overwhelming two-to-one margin over the second choice. On November 13, 1997, in front of 3,000 enthusiastic fans at The Wildhorse Saloon in downtown Nashville, the saber-toothed tiger logo was unveiled for the first time with the Predators insignia attached to it.

On February 12, 1998, Head Coach Barry Trotz and Assistant Coach Paul Gardner unveiled the Predators' inaugural home and away jerseys in front on 2,000 fans at Cool Springs Galleria.

On November 21, 2001, the Predators debuted a third jersey with a 4-3 win against the Chicago Blackhawks at the Sommet Center. The jersey featured an "animated" saber-tooth tiger logo on the crest and tiger skulls on the shoulders. It was retired following the 2006-07 season.

For the 2007-08 season, the Predators, along with the other 29 NHL teams, introduced the Rbk EDGE Uniform System to further meet the performance demands of today's player. The uniforms were the result of more than two years of research and testing by Reebok, and they feature technologically advanced materials and fabrics that are more breathable, more water-resistant, more comfortable and more compatible with equipment. The implementation of the Rbk EDGE Uniform System marked the first time in the history of North American professional sports that a uniform innovation was introduced League-wide.

NASHVILLE HOCKEY HISTORY

In the spring of 1962, a small group of businessmen led by David Patterson put up $125,000 to place a team in the Eastern Hockey League. The Dixie Flyers, named after a passenger train said to be the oldest in the South, were placed in the nine-team league. The purple-and-gold colored Flyers played their first regular-season home game (a 2-0 loss to Knoxville) on Oct. 27, 1962 at the Municipal Auditorium. The Flyers endured a rough opening season, winning 16 games and qualifying for the playoffs, only to be swept in three games by Greensboro. However, it didn't take long for the Flyers to make their presence felt.

After losing in the 1965 Finals, the Flyers went on to win EHL Walker Cup championships in 1966 and 1967, the only two professional ice hockey titles in the city's history. John McLellan, who went on to coach the Toronto Maple Leafs, coached the Flyers. The Flyers swept each of their three playoff series' in 1966. They won the championship by going 11-0 in the playoffs and becoming the first team in minor league ice hockey ever to march through the playoffs undefeated.

In 1967, Patterson's group sold the team to a business group headed by Mark Parrish. The Cinderella '69 team reached the Finals, but lost in seven tough games to the Clinton (N.Y.) Comets in the Walker Cup Finals. Shortly after, the Flyers' attendance slipped dramatically. Barely able to scrape up enough funds to start the 1970-71 campaign, the Flyers folded following the season.

Hockey returned to Nashville when baseball guru Larry Schmittou, who brought minor league baseball back to Nashville in 1978 after a 15-year absence, did the same for hockey in July 1981. Thus the South Stars were founded, a team that played in the Central Hockey League and had the Minnesota North Stars as its NHL affiliate. The logo was a hockey player swinging a guitar representing the Music City while using yellow, orange and green.

The 1981-82 team finished fourth in its division and lost to Wichita, 3-0, in the first round of the playoffs. Gene Ubriaco, who went on to coach the NHL Pittsburgh Penguins and 1992 Italian Olympic team, coached the Stars.

Under new ownership (Randy Van Meter), the Stars pulled out of the CHL in 1982 and entered the old Atlantic Coast Hockey League (ACHL), playing teams geographically closer to Nashville. The Stars finished 11-43-4 and suffered through a season of low attendance. They began the following season, only to fold in December 1983.

Two Knoxville wrestling promoters, Bob Polk and Ron Fuller, rescued the sport five years later. They purchased an East Coast Hockey League franchise in January 1989. The Knights, with popular ex-South Stars player Archie Henderson as coach, attracted an astonishing 150,000 fans their first season (1989-90). While wearing red and blue uniforms adorned with the logo of a knight's mask, they made the playoffs but lost in the first round. During the 1990-91 season, Peter Horachek, current Predators assistant coach, served as the Knights' head coach and director of hockey operations.

The Knights went through three ownership changes in their seven-year history. They twice went to the semi-finals of the ECHL playoffs - in 1993 under ex-NHL standout and coach Nick Fotiu, and in 1995 under coach Mark Kumpel.

Perhaps the top Knights highlight came during the 1992-93 season when Trevor Jobe scored what is still a minor hockey league record 85 goals, with 76 assists, for 161 points and 12 hat tricks in his MVP season.

In the spring of 1996, after failed negotiations for a lease agreement with the Auditorium, the Knights departed to Pensacola, Fla. There, they were renamed the Ice Pilots.

Hockey was revived again with the arrival of the NightHawks in the fall of 1996. The Central Hockey League team only won 12 games, the worst in CHL history. The red-and-blue NightHawks' logo was a hawk showing its claws. Nashvillian Mike Friedman purchased the team in the summer of 1997. In a renewed salute to the old Dixie Flyers, Friedman changed both the name to the Ice Flyers and the colors to blue and gray. David Lohrie led the team to a 41-win season and a second-place finish in the CHL East and was named coach of the year. The team lost in the semifinals to the eventual CHL Champ Columbus in April 1998. The impending arrival of the Predators led Friedman to move the franchise to Albany, Ga.

This closed the book on three separate chapters, a combined 21 years, of minor league hockey in Nashville, starting and ending with the team named the Flyers. Former Predators President Jack Diller is well aware and appreciative of Nashville's hockey pioneers. "The team and sport obviously made a significant impact on many people here in Middle Tennessee. Other teams such as the South Stars, Knights, NightHawks and Ice Flyers also enjoyed varying degrees of success – all of which helped fuel the excitement for the NHL and arrival of the Predators," Diller said.
